BERLIN YIELDS IN NEW PROPOSAL

To Offer Payment of 200,000,000,000 Gold Marks for Reparations

Pledges as Guarantees—Offer Called a "Liberal Compromise"

BERLIN, April 25. (By the Associated Press.)—The payment by Germany of 200,000,000,000 gold marks for reparations is, roughly, the proposal submitted by Germany for transmission to the allies, according to sources close to the government. The payments will be spread over a period of from 30 to 42 years, or less, according to Germany's economic recovery.

Economic pledges in the way of goods and participation in German industries are offered as guarantees. It is stated.

The proposals refrain from proposing the assumption by Germany of the allied debts to the United States. The offer, it is indicated, inclines more toward the terms formulated by the allies at the Paris conference last winter, than to the offer made by Germany.

QUESTIONS WITNESSES IN MURDER CASE

A number of persons, who are to be called to testify next week in the trial of the Tallen murder case in the superior court, were questioned today by Assistant District Attorney Frank Goldman as to their knowledge of happenings in connection with the alleged slaying of the Middlesex-street storekeeper. At the close of the examination, Mr. Goldman stated that a considerable array of witnesses would be called by the prosecution during the trial of the case.

The case is to open next Monday in this city where the veniremen for the jury have been ordered to report. After the jury has been selected it is expected that a view of the premises where the alleged murder occurred will be made, and that the trial will then be adjourned to Cambridge. Mr. Goldman asserted that he had not heard of any move being made to have the whole of the trial held in Lowell. He said that there were no suitable accommodations for the care of the prisoners here unless the Lowell jail is opened, and that to have it opened, it would be necessary to obtain an order from the county commissioners.

According to Mr. Goldman it is uncertain how long it will take to conduct that part of the trial that is to be held in this city. Each of the three defendants is entitled to 22 challenges, making a total of 66, and if a considerable portion of these are used, considerable time may be consumed in selecting a jury.

CONTRIBUTION TO IRISH RELIEF FUND

At the regular meeting of the Mathew Temperance Institute held yesterday afternoon in the institute quarters in Central street, the members voted to instruct the treasurer to send a check for $100 to the treasurer of the local Irish relief campaign committee, and each member was urged to make an individual contribution as well.

President Arthur Flaherty was in the chair. Several new members were admitted and other applications were referred to the board of examiners. The quarterly reports of the financial secretary and treasurer showed the society in a prosperous condition. The ladies' night committee announced another of its series of complimentary dances for this evening and promised a good time to all who attend.

Sec. Weeks Acts to Halt Granting Ordnance Patents to Germans

WASHINGTON, April 25.—Activity of German citizens in obtaining patents from the American government embodying many of the principles of American railroad artillery and other ordnance led Secretary Weeks to ask congress today for legislation limiting the granting of patents to foreigners. The secretary said 201 ordnance patents had been obtained here by German citizens since last July 1, and all transferred to Frederick Krupp, the great ordnance manufacturer at Essen.

Britain Ready to Support France in Plan to Occupy Westphalian Coal Fields

LONDON, April 25.—(By the Associated Press.)—Prime Minister Lloyd George stated in the house of commons this afternoon that if the new German reparations proposals, which had not yet been received, proved unsatisfactory Great Britain would support France at next Saturday's allied conference in her proposals for occupation of the Westphalian coal fields.

JAIL SENTENCE FOR AUTOIST

Man Charged With Operating Automobile While Under Influence of Liquor

Sentenced Today to Two Months in the House of Correction

Judge Enright Issues Strong Warning to Drunken Drivers of Motor Vehicles

One defendant was sentenced to two months in jail, on charges of operating an automobile while under the influence of liquor, and a strong warning to motorists was pronounced by Judge Thomas J. Enright in the police court this morning. His Honor declared that imprisonment will be his sentence in all cases which come before the court in future, where driving of a machine while intoxicated is shown. This action will be taken, he said, regardless of what the superior court may do. He cautioned drivers of automobiles that he will hold them responsible for all damage or injuries caused by them, if they have been drinking to the extent of drunkenness. "I want to give a warning to the public," stated his Honor. "Spring and summer are coming, and automobiles are getting

AUTO CRASH CASE GOES TO THE JURY

Arguments were concluded and the case given to the jury in the superior court this morning in the suit of Constantine Economitis, of Braintree, vs. the Eastern Massachusetts street railway company. The plaintiff is seeking to recover for damage to an automobile being operated as a jitney that was in collision with a trolley car belonging to the defendant corporation on the Lawrence boulevard early in the evening of November 13, 1919.

The trial was begun this morning at the suit of Vesta A. Davis, of Chelmsford, vs. the inhabitants of the town of Chelmsford and Charles R. Forsyth, the town's superintendent of streets. The plaintiff asks for recompense for the failure of the defendants to carry out the terms of an alleged oral contract for the employment of a team of horses on highway work during the entire construction period of 1920. She alleges that work under the contract ceased June 8, 1920, and that she suffered loss as a consequence.

Stanley E. Qua, of Qua, Howard & Rogers, appeared for the plaintiff; E. A. Fisher for the defendants.

SHIPMENT BY AIRPLANE FOR LOWELL STORE

Bringing a cargo of Clinot, a popular patent medicine, an aeroplane will reach Lowell some time tomorrow, after a direct flight from the factory where the product is manufactured, at Cincinnati, Ohio. A landing will be made at the Lowell driving club's park at Golden Cove, and the shipment of medicine will there be transferred to motor trucks and brought to Dow's drugstore. The shipment, a biplane, will then rise and circle over the business section. One hundred cartons, attached to tiny parachutes, will be dropped from the plane, and within these will be certificates entitling the holder to a bottle of the preparation. One thousand puzzles will also be released by the pilot, it is stated. It is believed that this marks the first delivery of medicine by airplane in this section of the country.

MAN MURDERED AT WEDDING

Free-for-All Fight at Wedding Celebration in Brooklyn This Morning

Unknown Man Shot to Death, Another Fatally Stabbed, 18 Arrested

NEW YORK, April 25.—An argument among male guests at an early morning wedding celebration Brooklyn today precipitated a fight in which one unidentified man was shot to death and another stabbed so that he may die.

More than 30 friends of Frederick (Skeky) Black, pugilist, gathered to make merry on the occasion of his marriage to Miss Theresa Broderick. After a midnight feast, the guests began dancing and shouting their good wishes to bride and groom.

Two men argued, words were passed and the fight began. Excited women ran screaming from the room and at this juncture the police said the fight became general. Under the table the police found a revolver with chambers discharged. The dead man was leaning over the back of a chair, Dominick Pendastore, 24, lay on the floor with five knife wounds in his back.

Black, his bride, father and brother, and 14 others were taken by police to headquarters and questioned. None was able to identify the slain man. All were held on a technical charge of homicide.

RENEW EFFORTS TO END BRITISH COAL STRIKE

LONDON, April 25. (By the Associated Press.)—Renewed efforts to find a basis for the settlement of the coal strike were made today, when representatives of the owners and the executive officers of the miners' federation met in joint conference with representatives of the government.

The owners submitted a detailed statement of their proposals and it is understood the possibilities of a temporary settlement were under discussion. The owners, it was stated, were prepared to advocate a temporary agreement for three months, after which a permanent settlement would become operative, this embracing a standard wage and a standard profit.

The temporary agreement would be in the nature of a compromise between the national wage basis desired by the miners and the district basis desired by the owners.

Shortly after noon, the conference adjourned until tomorrow, when Mr. Lloyd George will preside over its deliberations.

LIQUOR CASES PRESENT MANY ANGLES

The liquor situation displayed some odd angles in the police court this morning, when sundry charges connected with the forbidden beverage resulted in two fines, a refusal to pay a fine, testimony that a man about to be arrested for drunkenness continued to resist himself with moonshine in the presence of the officers, and a default. Nicholas Saxone, charged with illegal sale of liquor at his variety store on Common street, was fined $150. He was notified through an interpreter of the court's decision, and he responded via the same medium that he would not pay said fine. Judge Enright proclaimed a willingness to have him carried out this determination. He felt so disposed, but when it was explained to the defendant that he had the right to appeal, he resorted to this measure, holding $300 bonds.

After thinking matters over for a few moments, while awaiting a bondsman, Saxone decided that he would separate himself from the $150 and carried out this determination. Officers of the liquor squad bore damaging testimony against him during the case. Officer O'Sullivan told of seeing Saxone's establishment about 8 o'clock Saturday night, when he was gazed intently at the officer's gulletless countenance, and finally began upon him a serving of moonshine, for which he exacted the most reasonable sum of 25 cents. While awaiting the arrival on the scene of Officers Kivian, Winn and Clark, Officer O'Sullivan called for an engine, which was needed to remove the case. At this stage of the proceedings, the other liquor officers entered and announced themselves. Saxone was escorted to police headquarters and charged with illegal sale. A search of his premises revealed about a gallon and a half of moonshine, declared the officers. The case of Joseph Zuhle, also charged with illegal sale, was dismissed, of with a fine of $100. Zuhle pleaded guilty to a sale of "jake."

Those who drink were represented in the court as well as those who do not. Frank Silva had been drinking his wife, while stimulated with liquor, it was testified, when he attacked a woman named Mary. When officers arrived at the scene, he nonchalantly tossed off a beer. In his presence, prior to being formally arrested, it was stated, he uttered three months in the house of correction, and a six months suspension was granted. The case of Rose Terrio, charged with drunkenness, was filed, while Edmond Girard, charged with the same offense, was said to have been taken to the police station, going to Montreal, where he was detained. The Terrio woman and Girard appeared in court on April 18. On that occasion they pleaded not guilty to the charge. Today, the woman changed her plea to guilty, and the case was filed, as it was at first offense. The case of James Kierkegaard, charged with drunkenness, was continued to April 26. There were eight releases of drunks by Probation Officer Slattery.

AUTOS KILL HOPPERS

Forty-two loads, crushed on the macadam pavement of Chelmsford by an oncoming car, were found yesterday by an agent of the Lowell Humane society. The unfortunate batrachians had evidently fallen victims to automobiles, and all the corpses were dismiled. It was stated by an officer of the Humane society that there is no way to prevent this wholesale killing of toads, which are highly regarded by farmers and gardeners. The little animals make themselves valuable in destroying insect pests wherever vegetables or flowers are growing. Often kitchen gardeners carry toads to their homes, when they encounter them in their garden-plots where they work havoc with injurious insect life.

French Supreme War Council Meets

PARIS, April 25.—(By the Associated Press.)—The French supreme war council, comprising Marshals Foch, Joffre and Petain, and Generals Brial, Weygand and Pegoutte, planned to meet this afternoon in the Elysee Palace under the chairmanship of President Millerand. A cabinet council will meet at the Elysee Palace at 9.30 o'clock tonight under the presidency of M. Millerand. Premier Briand will be present.

ROAD IS READY FOR EMERGENCY

Local Union Asks for Conference With the Municipal Council

Men Do Not Want to Strike if They Can Avoid It

Last Street Railway Strike Here Took Place in June, 1919

Claiming that the Eastern Massachusetts Street Railway Co. trustees are ignoring their demands for arbitration of differences, the employees of the road are considering the question of a strike. The employees of the Lowell division have voted, 163 to 5, to go on strike, if the trustees refuse to arbitrate. The carmen, however, emphasize the fact that they do not want to strike if they can avoid doing so without sacrificing their rights.

It was learned today that the local street railwaymen's union, through its president, Thomas J. Powers, had asked the municipal council for a private conference at city hall next Wednesday, presumably to discuss the present situation. It is proposed to have the members of the council, selectmen from neighboring towns in which the road operates, two officers of the international union and officers of the local platform men and barn workers present.

COMPLETE AUDIT OF CITY BOOKS

Everett E. Tarbox, who was hired some months ago to conduct the annual audit of the books of the city of Lowell, has completed his work and submitted a report to Commissioner James E. Donnelly of the finance department. The report will be presented at the municipal council at its meeting tomorrow morning and for the first time in the history of the city the annual audit will become a part of the records of that body.

The new procedure will be inaugurated at the suggestion of City Auditor J. Joseph Hennessy, who believes that some permanent official record of the yearly audits should be kept. He said that the finance department had by chance kept copies of these audits made in the past, but that the city clerk was the official custodian of records and that he should be in charge of them. He says that he considers the audits important enough to become a part of the permanent records of the city, and furthermore, that inasmuch as the council orders the audit, a report should be made to that body and not simply to the commissioner of finance.

Mr. Hennessy says that there is nothing to prevent an auditor from destroying all the records of past audits if they are placed in the hands of the city clerk, he is locally responsible for their safe keeping. Accordingly, the contents of Mr. Tarbox's 1921 report will remain in the realm of things unrevealed until tomorrow morning.

PRESENTS "HOLY CITY"

League of Catholic Women
in Second Oratorio—Mrs.
Slattery Gives Address

The presence of exceptional musical ability among the members of the League of Catholic Women was again demonstrated yesterday afternoon in Associate hall at the regular monthly meeting of the league when the organization's choral club presented Gault's oratorio, "The Holy City," in capable fashion.

Under the general direction of Mrs. John T. Donahue, the members of the club, assisted by the league orchestra and several men singers from the Catholic church choir, delighted a large audience by its carefully prepared presentation of the delightful and impressive scores of the noted oratorio.

Miss Grace Gilday Donahue also contributed materially to the success of the affair by her artistic playing of the harp. The chorus, under the direction of Mrs. J. W. Green, was at its best and gave the choral portions of the oratorio with volume or subdued tone, as the intent of the music directed. The soloists were Mrs. Joseph W. Green, Miss Harriet G. Moran, Miss Kathleen Jennings, Mrs. Mary M. Mooney, Miss Mary Mack, Miss Mary Casey, Miss Teresa Slattery and Messrs. William Gault, Jas. S. King, Timothy Finnegan, John Doyle and Herbert Proctor. Miss Marie J. C. O'Donnell led the league orchestra in her usual capable fashion.

Following the oratorio, Mrs. Francis T. Slattery, president of the League of Catholic Women of the arch-diocese of Boston, gave a brief address on the subject of Catholic women's work. She said that the Boston league had grown from a small membership of 1200 to an organization of 5000 members, while the total membership of the league in the entire diocese numbers 450,000. She said that these figures indicated the advance of Catholic women to the front rank in civic as well as religious life. Through the privilege of the ballot Catholic women are going to be the greatest influence to stabilize American public opinion that the world has ever known, she predicted.

She said that Catholic women are not opposing the Smith-Towner educational bill because they are Catholics, but because it is taking away the

THE STRAND

Elaine Hammerstein, one of the screen's most charming exponents of demure simplicity, will again be the headline attraction at The Strand for the first three days of the coming week. The beautiful Selznick star will again this time in her latest production of the film, entitled "Pleasure Seekers," an original story by John Lynch, and scenario by Edward Montague, a writing combination that has been responsible for many recent photoplay successes.

The story of "Pleasure Seekers" concerns the career of a young girl who lives with her grandfather, an aged minister, in the small town of South Paradise. One day she chances to meet the son of a wealthy New York business man who has been sent into the world to make his own living. The man is an idler and spendthrift, but the girl finds in him something that appeals to her sense of companionship. Shortly after the death of her grandfather she marries him and returns to New York City. It is then that their life together really begins and the girl finds that she has taken a greater task than she at first bargained for. The role of Mary Murdock is a typical Hammerstein part, and the feelings of the observer will be divided between sympathy and admiration for the courageous girl who quietly but firmly wins her way to happiness. Beautifully staged with many charming exterior scenes, this photoplay is said to carry an atmosphere of refinement and optimism that is most fascinating.

"The Little Fool," an adaptation from Jack London's "The Little Lady of the Big House," will be the second feature for the first of the week. Milton Sills will head the all-star cast engaged in its presentation. It is the drama of "Dick" Forrest, a wealthy ranch owner, and his wife, Paula. The latter falls in love with the husband's chum, and is about to leave the palatial residence forever. At the last moment Paula realizes that she does not really know her own mind. The tenderness with which the big situations are packed make this really the greatest London story ever transplanted to the screen.

Besides these two big features there will be the usual comedy and weekly as well as musical numbers of genuine merit. Don't miss this exceptional bill. For the week-end, beginning Thursday, George Walsh in "Number 17," and Gladys Walton in "Rich Girl, Poor Girl," will be shown, and also a Charlie Chaplin comedy.

B. F. KEITH'S THEATRE

Bobby Bernard, one of the most unctuous of comedians portraying H. H. H. characters, will be the headliner of the big bill at the B. F. Keith theatre, this week, beginning this afternoon. "A Wife Guy" is the particular vehicle in which Bernard will appear, and it is not only laughter all the way through, but Hugh Herbert who wrote it for him, has actually supplied a real plot. Bernard is one of Broadway's most likable comedians. Comedy is his long suit all of the time, and he plays it for full 20 minutes, and never does an audience tire of him.

Russ Brown and Connie O'Donnell in their delightful piece of fun-making, "Protector in Fun," will more than live up to the splendid reputation they have gained elsewhere. They are really two of the very funniest men in vaudeville, and that is placing a very high value on their work. Their act is one in which the audience is bound to get full value. Of that there is no manner of doubt.

"The Melody Garden," in which six handsome young women, a Mary, is another act which will qualify as being a topnotcher. All of the young women are exceedingly musical, and every one is a singer. As well as being an instrumentalist. Furthermore, the stage settings of this act are far and away above the ordinary.

Of excellent calibre is the work of Claudia Coleman, who will give her "Feminine Types." She has a handful of them to offer to an audience, and each differs materially from the others. There are Clinton and Rooney—the Rooney being a sister of the celebrated Pat. Will and Biondy are a pair of marvelous youngsters and Biondy is one of the most novel of jugglers.

MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE

The beautiful Yosemite valley, one of the famous garden spots of the world, formed the background for many of the exterior scenes filmed for Wallace Field's latest photoplay, "The Love Special," the feature of the program at the Merrimack square theatre for Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. More than a week was spent there by Mr. Field and his company getting "shots" for his new production. "The Love Special" is a story of absorbing interest and will be well received by Mr. Field's many local admirers. The other feature for the week, "Buried Treasure," starring Marion Davies, is a striking production having to do with the theory of reincarnation. Scenes of ancient and medieval splendor make it a picture of exceptional beauty. A comedy and the International News round out the bill.

OPERA HOUSE

In the selection of that delightful comedy drama, "That Girl Patsy," by the Opera House management for presentation this week by the Lowell Players, once again excellent judgment of the style of "Peg o' My Heart," with Miss Marguerite Fields portraying the role of Patricia Davis, the scapegrace siren of the school. Those who remember Miss Fields in such a character will look forward with pleasurable anticipation to the coming presentation. All of the sweet charm of simplicity and human interest is there for reflection, and in it Miss Fields will find exceptional chance to indicate her capabilities as seldom before. Milton Hyron, the leading man, will also be found in a role that affords him one of his best opportunities.

That Girl Patsy

"That Girl Patsy" will be shown here for the first time, and judging from the unequalled success it enjoyed in all other theatrical centres, there is no question but what it will score heavily during its local run. It's a play after the style of "Peg o' My Heart," with Miss Marguerite Fields portraying the role of Patricia Davis, the scapegrace siren of the school. Those who remember Miss Fields in such a character will look forward with pleasurable anticipation to the coming presentation. All of the sweet charm of simplicity and human interest is there for reflection, and in it Miss Fields will find exceptional chance to indicate her capabilities as seldom before. Small Pill—Small Dose—Small Price

In a true-to-life characterization. The others of the company, particularly Miss Priscilla Knowles and Miss Florence Hill, will be found in congenial roles, while Maxwell Driscoll, Kenneth Fleming and Charles Barton will also be assigned to parts, best suited to their qualifications as actors. Miss Pembroke will also find chance of demonstrating her acting talents. In staging the piece Jack Bennett gives the assurance of a production equal to the high standard of the past.

The advance sale of tickets for the week has been large, and indications at this time point to another record-breaking run. In view of this report it would be well for patrons to make their reservations as early as possible and thus avoid delay or disappointment. The box office will be open daily from 10 a. m. to 8 p. m. Tel. 241.

There should be capacity audiences at this afternoon and night performance, for one-half of the gross receipts are to be turned over for the relief of the distressed in Ireland. The local committee appointed Miss Susan Ryan, Miss Maria Markham and John Barrett to work in conjunction with the theatre management to make the great success it should result in.

RIALTO THEATRE

The tragic drama, "East Lynne," the veteran play of many an American platform is once more reissued in screen form and will be seen at the Rialto theatre for the next three days, beginning today. The story is a Hugo Bolton production and stars Mabel Ballin and Edward Earl in the leading roles. Every character appearing in the wonderful old story is chosen according to his or her fitness for the respective parts and the results that have been achieved are beyond screen imagination. The program also carries an added attraction, with Mildred Harris Chaplin in "Old Dad," a comedy, a continuation of "The Son of Tarzan" and the Fox News. It is a big well-balanced program and will make everybody sit up.

BRIDAL VEIL FLOUR

"Wheat Is Wheat," But There Is a Vast Difference in Wheats

DO you know that the wheat plant is a most delicately sensitive one? Excesses of heat or cold at crucial growing periods will greatly damage it, and affect the character and quality of the wheat kernel produced. Like the human body, it is susceptible to many diseases, some of which are common in certain sections. The wheat plant is also the host of many insects and parasites, which materially affect the quality of the wheat kernel produced from an infested plant. Few users of wheat flour realize with what care wheat must be selected in order to secure a good, wholesome family flour.

BRIDAL VEIL FLOUR is made only of the choicest and most carefully selected hard wheats, thereby insuring not only a wholesome product, but a flour of unsurpassed quality for family use. It is just as essential that you get good flour as that you get good milk.

APPOINTMENT FOR LOCAL THEATRE MANAGER

Announcement was made today of the appointment of Walter J. Nelson, managing director of the Merrimack Square Theatre in this city, as manager and buyer of the film department of the A. S. Black New England theatres with headquarters in Boston. In his new position Mr. Nelson will be in direct supervision of the purchase of photoplays used in 47 theatres extending from Uxley, N. Y. to Houston, Mo., popularly known as the Black circuit.

However, Mr. Nelson will not be compelled to relinquish his position as manager of the Merrimack Square theatre but will hold both positions, turning over many of the details of the management of the local theatres to Assistant Manager John T. McGlew. Mr. Nelson's duties as film manager will consist of reviewing scores of pictures every week at the various exchanges in Boston and selecting those suitable for presentation in the various circuits of the Black circuit. Any photoplays which he deems suitable for presentation in all of the Black houses is assured of running 105 days. Some of the theatres change their program daily, others every two days and others, like the Merrimack Square theatre, every three days. In a few instances, where an exceptionally notable production is being shown, the running time often continues for a week.

All the large motion picture producing firms have exchanges in Boston where there are projection rooms in which new photoplays are shown for the benefit of buyers from the various circuits. Sometimes, one of the Boston theatres is engaged for this trial showing so that the orchestral effects and the atmosphere of a real theatre may be obtained to bring out the particular virtues of any single production.

Inasmuch as the selection of proper photoplays to suit the taste of the public in any particular city is the secret of the success of a motion picture circuit, Mr. Nelson's new position is one of no little responsibility.

However, he has had previous experience in this work and his friends in Lowell are confident that he will meet with success. Co-operating with him in his new position will be P. B. Dixon, former manager of the Rialto in New Haven, Conn., who has been appointed publicity manager of the newly created department.

Mr. Nelson will begin his new duties at once and will devote several days each week to work in Boston.

CAUSES FOR FALLING OFF IN EXPORTS

NEW YORK, April 23.—The big fall off in value of merchandise exported from the United States is due in a considerable part to lower prices. We recently realize, says a statement by the National City Bank of New York, the reduction in export prices which has occurred in the last few months and the effect of this reduction upon our export trade.

As a part of the marked decline recorded in the March export figures is due to a reduction in the quantity of certain lines of products exported, the fact that many of the principal factors forming our exports are now going abroad at practically half the former price per unit of quantity accounts in considerable part for the fall in the total value of merchandise exported.

While figures of export prices in March are not yet available, those of February, 1921, as recorded by the government, indicate that many of the important articles now passing out of the country are going at less than half the price per unit of quantity of those being exported a few months earlier. Take cotton, for example, one of the big factors in our export trade, the official records of the government show that the average price per pound of the cotton exported in February, 1921, was 17.2c per pound, against 37.5c in August, 1920, and 45.3c in June, 1920, another big item in the export trade, was exported in February, 1921, at $3.37 per barrel, against $12.23 in the preceding September; copper averaged in the February exports 13.7c per pound, against 20c in August, and 20.4c in February of 1920; corn exported in February, 1921, averaged 58c per bushel, against $1.10 in June of the preceding year. With the fall in the price of raw cotton, that of cotton manufactures correspondingly declined, the average price of unbleached cotton cloth exported in February having been 11.9c per pound, against 27c in August, 1920; and bleached cotton 17.2c per pound, against 23.2c in the preceding year. Even in meats, in which the export prices have shown a less contrast with those of last year, the average price in February was materially below that of the corresponding months of the preceding year; canned beef exported averaging 16.3c per pound against 42.2c per pound in November of the preceding year; corned beef 20.5c per pound against 27.1c a year earlier; lard 15.3c against 26.8c per pound one year earlier, and refined sugar exported in February, 1921, showed an average of 1c per pound against 14.6c in November, four months earlier.

It does not follow, however, adds the statement, that all of the decline in the value of exports is due to the fall off in export prices above noted, for a further examination of the February exports shows tremendous declines of quantities of certain articles exported, especially in classes in which the exports of a year ago were running at exceptionally high figures. The number of automobiles exported in February, 1921, was, according to the official figures of the government, only 2,205 passenger cars against 10,577 in February of the preceding year, and of commercial cars only 622 against 2,169 in February, 1920. Cotton cloth also shows a marked fall in quantity, the value of exports of yards exported in February, 1921, having been only 20,000,000 against 70,000,000 yards in February, 1920, and the value $3,671,000 in February, 1921, against $19,477,000 in February, 1920. Raisins, 171,000 pounds against 8,600 in the same month of last year; prunes 1,772,000 pounds against 18,148,000 in February, 1920; and canned salmon 1,255,000 pounds against 2,907,000 in the same month of last year.

In two classes of merchandise exported, steel and petroleum, the prices of February, 1921, show little, if any, decline compared with the corresponding period of the preceding year. In most of the manufactures of iron and steel, the February, 1921, prices are, in fact, higher than those of February of last year, the total of iron and steel exports in February, 1921, having been 257,582,000, valued at $48,379,000, against 256,722,000, valued at $48,322,000 in February of the preceding year.

Chicago Men Credited With Great Discovery

Taking Theory, That Nature Itself Provides a Cure for Every Ill, He Has Revolutionized Many Ideas in the Medical World.

WATCHED WILD ANIMALS

CHICAGO, Nov. 3.—For the past three months many remarkable and strange stories have been circulated in and about New England concerning a theory worked out by a Chicago doctor. This physician took the stand that nature has a cure for every disease under the sun and it was every man's job to discover the secret; so this man undertook to pry the secrets from Mother Nature, by watching animals, both domestic and wild, in their native haunts. It is a known and scientific fact that animals, unless they are hampered with too much civilization, are rarely sick or carried off by disease before their allotted span of years; it is also known that unless poisoned, the animals overcome sickness. The deer, bear, elk, wild cat, wolves, skunks, in fact all animals, domestic and wild, were closely observed as to diet, both in health and sickness. Then the meat eating animals were segregated and their habits noted and it was observed that they always hunted certain herbs and plants every so often. A sick dog was noted as eating large quantities of grass, and if grass was not obtainable it would eat leaves or other herbs. We have all noted our feline friend, the cat, how it will hunt catnip, eat it and even roll in it. The bears, both carnivorous and herbivorous, will eat yellow buds when indisposed. The elk and deer were noted as hunting grassweeds, sage and also willows. Gophers and prairie dogs hunted alfalfa and clover. It was also noted that dandelion, yellow dock and some other golden seal were used by many animals besides many other herbs and plants.

The Indians were then consulted and all of their nature remedies were looked into carefully and their views and studies of wild animals were added to this fund of knowledge. Nothing was overlooked in the way of nature's cures.

Then the experiments began. Many months were spent balancing this remedy and tests were made again and again with its relation toward man, who is both a meat-eating and vegetable-eating animal. Finally, 12 plants were picked out, and the herbs, hosioms, berries, roots and leaves were selected with great care and put under hydraulic pressure and the juices squeezed out and compounded into a remedy that was to become known as CINOT.

It was given a name, and then for one year tests were made, beginning in the far South, then the Middle West and then in New England. In Bridgeport it became a wonder medicine to hundreds of people who a year ago were sick, down and out and miserable from constipation, nervousness, kidney trouble, dyspepsia and indigestion and the dreaded rheumatism. Its effects were so marvelous that it came under the notice of Dr. E. L. Van Housen, prominent physician of Chicago, who says it is a remarkable combination. Prof. E. K. Landt, well-known professor in chemistry and pharmacy, says: "The makers have upset every calculation and established something new in the way of a tonic."

A name had to be given, and that name was taken from TONIC, the word merely reversed and called CINOT, which is appropriate. The makers now have their troubles. They cannot supply the demand, and so far only a few localities have it, and the manufacturers beg the many inquiring druggists to please be patient until they can enlarge their facilities.

Any inquiries from reputable druggists or physicians will be answered promptly by the CINOT Syndicate eastern office, 27 Lincoln building, Bridgeport, Conn.

Plane Leaving Factory With Shipment of CINOT

THOUSANDS OF PEOPLE USING, NO SENSE IN BEING WEAK, RUN-DOWN, NERVOUS NOWADAYS

The Marvelous Power of CINOT to Turn Nerve Shattered, Rundown Men and Women Into Healthy, Robust, Energetic Human Beings Is Truly Astounding

PUTS A PERSON BACK TO WORK DAYS AND WEEKS SOONER

Take a little dose of CINOT before your meals and you will feel as a robust man or woman ought to feel, vigorous and strong for the day's work or play. In just a few days you will feel the difference.

Don't go through the summer with the system weak and susceptible to colds and coughs but—tone it up and get your blood circulating through your body with a vigorous system and digestion behind every heartbeat. With the system working right, you will wake up in the morning feeling fine and with added weight, appetite and ambition the day's work will be a pleasure.

Your food will do you more good because you are digesting all of it; that is necessary, you will have energy and stamina. Conditions in the last few years have led up to the point where today practically none out of every ten people need a good general system tonic like CINOT.

Twenty years ago, the pace at which life was lived started growing faster. It finally became a straining race in which men and women worked feverishly, ate hastily, slept little and took no exercise. In short, living conditions became absolutely harmful to health.

During the period of the war, worry coupled with life at even a greater speed may have further hurt the health of many people and in addition to the average diet contained less of the necessary strengthening nutrition.

On top of all this came the "flu." It swept the nation from one end to the other and hundreds of thousands of people were attacked.

Countless men and women got over with some ailing condition that bothered them before aggravated. It may have been the stomach, the liver, the kidneys, that were out of order before, but whatever it was, countless folks say they can notice the trouble to be worse since they had the "flu."

Demand Is Great

As a result of these things, hundreds of thousands of people are today in poor health and the demand for CINOT is the greatest in history.

Sleepless nights are common. Complaints about the stomach, liver or kidneys are heard often. Bloating, belching, gas on the stomach after eating, lack of appetite, nervousness, catarrhal conditions of the head, nose and throat and bronchial tubes, a tired, worn-out feeling bother thousands.

The makers of CINOT realized that this country needed was a heretofore tonic that was strictly herbal and non-alcoholic, and CINOT was produced after long and tedious study by a Chicago physician and scientist, who was also a botanical expert.

Thousands Taking It

CINOT begins its action by placing the stomach in good condition and bringing a normal healthy action. It builds up the appetite. It tones up the liver and kidneys, quiets the nerves, thus producing sound, restful sleep. It strengthens and cleans out the system and circulates the blood. In short, CINOT is just what the ailing, run-down man and woman needs. Thousands of bottles of CINOT have already been sold and it has become the scientific wonder of the profession in many cities of the United States.

And it now seems to be a question of a short time until this wonderful remedy is sold around the world.

Two Brothers Shot to Death in Belfast—Derby Was on Private Mission

DUBLIN, April 25. (By the Associated Press.)—Fighting which lasted for 12 hours in the neighborhood of Mount Cross, County Galway, ended yesterday morning in search of a republican flying column. The republicans were found entrenched on high ground in the vicinity of the house of Patrick O'Malley, member of parliament.

The police took to cover as best they could and a prolonged engagement ensued in which Constable Boylan was killed and a sergeant wounded. At 3:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon reinforcements for the police arrived, bringing with them machine guns. They enveloped the position of the rebels who fled to the hills, taking their wounded with them.

According to a statement from Dublin castle, Mr. Cunningham Lennane, who motored out to the scene of the fighting to administer the rites of the church to the wounded, was deliberately fired upon by the rebels, but fortunately escaped injury.

Simultaneous raids by republicans on 22 postmen in Cork resulted in the capture of 47 registered and 5339 ordinary letters.

Two constables were wounded, Saturday night, by bombs thrown from upper windows in a public house in Limerick. One civilian was hit by splinters of a bomb. Saturday night a large number of bombs and a quantity of ammunition were found in stables near Wellington road, a residential section of Dublin. A police barracks were attacked Saturday night in Ardee, Cambrugh, Armagh and Queenstown. At Ardee the barracks were successfully defended, but that in Queenstown, which recently was vacated, was destroyed.

Two Brothers Killed
BELFAST, April 25.—Two brothers, Patrick and Daniel Duffin, respectively teacher and clerk, were shot and killed at midnight Saturday. It is believed they were shot in reprisal for an attack earlier in the afternoon on two auxiliaries, when Cadet Duffin was killed and Cadet Bales wounded. Two civilians, Mrs. Louise Gilson and Thos. Kennedy, also received wounds in the early attack.

A long-haired yellow dog, found in the kitchen of the cottage where the two young Irishmen were killed, is regarded as a clue to the identity of the men who shot them. According to John Duffin, a brother of the dead men, the dog was taken away from the cottage by a district inspector of the Royal Irish Constabulary who visited the place at 6 o'clock yesterday morning with a party of police to investigate the tragedy.

Cadet Duffin and Cadet Bales were attacked in a crowded thoroughfare. They are said to be the first auxiliaries to make their appearance in Belfast. They came here from Sligo several days ago and intended to return Saturday night. They had found they were unable to do so, however, because the train could not run on account of the shortage of coal due to the miners' strike.

The cadets had been to the railway station and walked over to Donegal place, about 2 o'clock in the afternoon. This street, which is the centre of the shopping district, was crowded with pedestrians. A number of shots were fired at the auxiliaries. One of them broke a window in a passing street car and wounded Mrs. Gilson in the mouth while another wounded a pedestrian, who was on the sidewalk.

The attacking party the number of which has not been ascertained, after the shooting, dashed up the lane leading toward Fife road, where many Sinn Feiners and nationalists live. Two soldiers, carrying only their rifles, narrowly escaped being hit by bullets that the fugitives fired at them as they ran.

Bales died later in a hospital. About 10 o'clock, the Duffin cottage, in the Clonard monastery grounds, entered by three armed men in civilian clothes. John Duffin, who was shot during the riots last July, was lying in bed upstairs. In describing the killing yesterday, he said his brothers were still sitting up in the kitchen. When the raiders were admitted to the cottage and when they were in the kitchen, Duffin said he heard one of them give the command, "Hands up!" This was followed by a fusillade of shots. The raiders rushed out before Duffin could get downstairs, where he found his brothers lying on the floor dying. In the kitchen was a dog, which appeared to have been well cared for.

The two slain men were members of the Gaelic league. Daniel was noted as a Gaelic football player. Bishop Macrory and many other Catholic clergymen visited the Duffin cottage yesterday.

Deported from Ireland
CORK, April 25.—The American steamer Honolulu has arrived here with William Pedlar, a naturalized American of Irish birth, who is being deported on board. The ship, which is under the supervision of armed police, will load two thousand barrels of mackerel for the American market, while in port here. Pedlar was deported from Dublin in 1919 as a political prisoner. He was released from Ellis Island after he had proved his citizenship. There has been no previous report that Pedlar again was in Ireland.

Derby on Private Mission
LIVERPOOL, April 25.—The courier says it has been authorized by the Earl of Derby to deny that he went to Ireland last week on a government mission or on the invitation of anybody in Ireland. The visit was purely a private one and made on the Earl of Derby's own initiative.

Green; floor director, Dr. P. J. Bagley; assistant floor director, Mr. John Adams; chief aid, Mr. John McDermott.

CATHOLIC NEWS

Members of the Passionist order opened a two weeks' mission at St. Peter's church yesterday, the first week being for the women and the second for the men. At the opening services at 7 o'clock last evening the attendance was so large that both the upper and lower churches had to be used. The services during the week will consist of mission masses at 5:30 and 8 each morning, followed by short instructions, and evening services at 7:30. The women's mission will close next Sunday afternoon and the men's mission will open Sunday evening. The priests conducting the mission are Rev. Fr. Emmanuel, C. P.; Rev. Fr. Mark, C. P.; Rev. Fr. Kasimir, C. P., and Rev. Fr. Bonaventura, C. P.

The week's mission for the women in St. Michael's and St. Margaret's parishes closed yesterday afternoon. The usual closing services were held under the direction of the Dominican fathers who conducted the mission at St. Michael's the single women had their closing services at 2 o'clock and the married women at 4. At St. Margaret's the closing services were at 3:30 and at both churches capacity congregations were the rule.

In the evening at 7:30 a week's mission for the men was opened in each of the churches and again the attendance was very large. At St. Michael's, the mission masses will be at 5:15 and 8 every morning and at St. Margaret's at 5:30 and 7:30. Evening services will be at 7:30 in both parishes.

The Children of Mary sodality of the Sacred Heart church will meet tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock. Members of St. Columba's parish will hold a whist party Wednesday evening and a dancing party Friday evening in aid of the Boston College building fund.

MAN INJURED WHEN HORSE RAN AWAY

The horse ran away, the buggy was smashed, the driver was treated at the hospital for a cut on his head, and his companion was taken to a police station for drunkenness, but was released yesterday morning by the probation officer. This is the result of a collision between a team and an automobile in Lakeview avenue Saturday evening.

The rig was in charge of George Cayer, of 200 Hall street, who, with Onesime Bordeaux, was enjoying a ride toward Lakeview. When a point was reached near the city line, the buggy collided with an automobile owned by George J. Sanborn, of 33 Ford street, which was stalled near the sidewalk and undergoing repairs. The collision frightened the horse, which started on a wild run, throwing Cayer out of the carriage. The animal soon freed itself from the buggy and continued its wild race through the avenue until it was brought to a stop by young men. In the meantime an officer appeared on the scene and sent Bordeaux to the station, while Cayer was taken to the Lowell Corporation hospital, where he received treatment for a bad cut on the head. The buggy was badly smashed.

HELD CONCERT FOR IRISH RELIEF FUND

An excellent program was given last night at St. Patrick's school hall for the benefit of the Irish relief fund under the auspices of Nathan Hale council, A.A.R.I.L. The hall was taxed to capacity.

The program was as follows: Orchestral selections, Miss Dorothy Leach; leader; soprano solo, Mrs. Joseph W. Green; quartet, Mrs. Mary M. Mooney, Miss Mary Mack, Mr. John McMahon, Mr. George Kerwin; soprano solo, Miss Nellie Lynch; reading, Miss Anna L. McGuire; tenor solo, Mr. Joseph Reilly; musical trio, Miss Grace Donohue; cello—Master Paul Donohue; violin—Master Charles Donohue; soprano solo, Miss Helen Quigley; readings, Mr. Max Driscoll, Mr. Charles Barton; contralto solo, Mrs. Nana G. Leahy; xylophone duet, Messrs. Miller and Doyle; soprano solo, Miss Lena N. Quin; baritone solo, Mr. James B. Donnelly; orchestral selections.

Through the kindness of Max Driscoll of the Lowell Opera House, copies of a song entitled "Idol of Erin," composed by Mr. Driscoll, were sold through the audience in aid of the fund.

IRISH RELIEF DRIVE
The committee in charge of the Irish drive started today on the general canvass of the city for contributions. Fresh accounts of the distress in Ireland have been received and add to the urgency of the demand for immediate relief. Many thousands of people not only in the south of Ireland but in the north have been left homeless and without the means of subsistence as a result of the reprisals carried out by the British government. One of their aims seems to be to leave the people helpless in poverty, believing that by this means the rebellion will be checked. The republican army, however, is still active and the fight is likely to continue until England de-

Kasino Carnival

All arrangements have been completed for the opening of the Kasino carnival this evening with midway, social and other features calculated to furnish unique amusement for all who attend. A large committee will be in charge of the features and there will be something doing every moment of the time during the entire evening. The fact that half the proceeds will go to the Irish Relief fund will undoubtedly induce the people who are in sympathy with the movement to attend in large numbers.

At the Opera House

At the Opera House this evening, the management will present the play, "That Girl Patsy," and Miss Fields will assume the role of the little Irish girl. The play is sure to please an audience made up largely of people of Irish sympathies. Manager Schaeke has volunteered to donate 50 per cent. of the proceeds to the Irish Relief fund, so that an unusually large attendance is expected.

ent at the conference. Up to noon today, the hour of the conference had not been set but assurance was given that it would be held.

Home Rule Committee

The local street railway home rule committee will meet next Thursday afternoon and may take some action on the impending situation.

Effective Next Monday

Other divisions of employees have reached a strike decision similar to that of the local workers. The proposed wage reduction which the union wants arbitrated is scheduled to go into effect one week from today, Monday, May 2, and at that time the trustees promise a reduction in fares.

The last strike on the local railway system was in June, 1919.

Officials of the company are laying plans for operation of the cars on all parts of the system, in the event that the threatened strike takes place. The Middlesex street car-barns are being used as a storehouse for cot beds for strike-breakers, the first consignment of which reached the city April 16. Manager Thomas Lees, however, gives assurance that this action was not intended to have the effect of "haunting a red flag in the faces of the men." The cots which came a week ago Saturday, says Manager Lees, appeared after the closing of the shops for the day. The second lot arrived shortly before 3 a. m. via motor truck, but the vehicle went to the rear of the shops and remained there until the men had departed.

Position of Employees

The position of the employees was outlined yesterday by President Thomas J. Powers, who heads Division 280, Lowell Carmen's union. Mr. Powers declared that the union is desirous to avoid a strike if possible. Only for the purpose of bringing about a recognition of the arbitration principle, he said, would such a measure be resorted to.

It is the contention of the union that the public trustees, in their latest offering in the form of an agreement, pay no attention to the question of arbitration in matters affecting the relations of the body of the employed with the heads of the company. The men are of the opinion that the new agreement amounts to nothing less than an effort to break the union. Mr. Powers made public the fact that the Carmen's unions in Lowell, Haverhill, Taunton, and Fall River have expressed themselves by ballot as ready to cease work if the trustees persist in failure to make arrangements for arbitration of points now at issue between employers and employed.

"The public trustees have offered the employees two propositions," said Fred A. Cummings, publicity agent for the Eastern Massachusetts, with reference to the case, "First, a union agreement in which the interests of the car riders are safeguarded and no injustice is done to the employees. Second, if the employees consider this union agreement unsatisfactory, we are perfectly willing to arbitrate wages and operate the road without an agreement." Mr. Cummings, however, declared that "We have no intention of entering into word contest with Attorney Vahey or those whom he designates to do his speaking. Attorney Vahey's position and record in various strikes are well known to the public."

Questions Voted Upon

Last week's sundry questions involved in the disagreement were put before the membership of the Lowell division, and a ballot showed the following results:

1—Will you accept the new agreement submitted by board of public trustees to committee of joint conference board, on April 11, 1921, which has already been explained at your meeting and a copy of which you received in your pay envelope last Friday, April 15, 1921? Yes 4; No 165.

2—Will you accept proposal of public trustees made to committee of conference board, April 15, 1921, providing for the arbitration of wages only, and providing for no union agreement? Yes 3; No 165.

3—Will you accept provisions of agreement submitted by your joint conference board to public trustees, March 29, 1921? Yes 168; No 1.

4—Are you willing to arbitrate any difference now existing between employees and trustees? Yes 168; No 1.

5—If no agreement can be reached with trustees and arbitration is refused, in accordance with your vote do you want to suspend work to enforce arbitration and leave time when such suspension shall take effect to your joint conference board and the international officers? Yes 163; No 5.

Joint Conference Report

A report has been issued by the joint conference board of the unions, in which the history of the controversy between the men and the trustees is rehearsed, as seen by the unions. The report, which is addressed to the members of the union, reads as follows: "To all the officers and all the members of all the divisions of the Amalgamated Association of Street and Electric Railway Employees of America on the property of the Eastern Massachusetts street railway company. "Dear Sirs and Brothers:

"I'm No Ladies' Man," Says Jack Dempsey;
"Put Me Down For a Fighting Guy!"

DEMPSEY IN NEW JERSEY—THE HEAVYWEIGHT CHAMPION IS PICTURED HERE AT FREDDY WELSH'S REST FARM AT SUMMIT, PROLICKING WITH WELSH'S TWO CHILDREN AND PLAYING THE PIANO. MORE STRENUOUS WORK COMES LATER.

Champion Talks About Women and Their Wiles—Literature and Love, Art and Atmosphere With The Sun Woman—Men Are Men and Women Are Dolls, He Says.

By MARIAN HALE
SUMMIT, N. J., April 25.—"Put me down as saying that men are men, a fight is a fight, but that women are dolls."

The speaker was Jack Dempsey, the heavyweight champion of the world, who has come to Jersey to train for his fight with Georges Carpentier, the European champion.

I was especially privileged in being permitted to interview Dempsey—for women are abroad at the champion's training quarters. He is stopping at Freddy Welsh's rest farm, where he plays golf and the piano and frolics with Welsh's two children while Jack Kearns is selecting his permanent training camp.

The leading question I had put to the champion was: "What do you think of women, Mr. Dempsey?" I thought it might bring up for discussion reports that he is engaged.

"I ain't married," he went on, "and I haven't got a girl, and when the big fight comes off, and the women take their places with the men on the other side of the ring, one won't make my heart beat faster than another."

"No, it ain't that I don't like ladies; it's that I know what I am doing. Women are the ruin of you—a sweet ruin if you are in for the wrecking business, and I have nothing against the guy who puts his head in the lion's mouth and dies while the little lady in the ruffles and the feathered hat laughs into her real lace handkerchief."

"It's that I am not in that business, that's all."

Jack's Philosophy
"I know that a fighter has just so many years to live, and he has to live those years among men, and after that there was a long pause—

"Well, after that perhaps I'll get married and go into business, but so long as this little old muscle dances to my command—stretching out his arm—I'll keep out of the class of Kipling's 'A Fool There Was.'"

"Nevertheless I like to see women in the benches, think they are a help to most athletes—if they are on the right side of the ropes," he added with another blush.

"You know athletic women are a bit worried," he continued, reaching for a glass of milk. "They are losing the lines that I used to know as feminine. I have to look twice at some of them to make sure they are not boys."

He Would Referee
He was asked what he thought of women as boxers.

"I've always wanted to be referee of one of those bouts," he acknowledged, and once more the crimson tide swept up to his hair.

"Say," he broke out, "do I look as if I eat them alive, miss?"

He stood with his brown eyes lowered, and he swayed ever so slightly on his feet as a child sways who has been treated too severely.

And I answered without an instant's hesitation. "No, Jack, you don't."

"It's this way," he said, sitting down again. "I live like a hermit. I get up at 6, run five miles, come back and get a tub."

"For lunch I have anything I like, a little roast beef, a few potatoes, a custard and a lot of tea. I'm a tea fan."

"Then I rest a while after lunch and then have a bout with the trainer or I go golfing or horseback riding or swimming."

"I get another rub down, have dinner, the heaviest meal, including soup and vegetables. Then to the billiard room for a game and finally to bed."

Eats Not With Knife
He drank off the last of the glass of milk and putting it down very slowly said, "I don't cut with my knife; please put that in the paper. One report had me doing that, and it hurt me."

"Then I'd be obliged if you would say for me that fights are not what they used to be. Blood is blood, I drink a cup of it at every bout, hot blood from a newly killed lamb."

"But that's for the benefit of the blood-lusting public. I don't really care for the taste of it myself and I can't say that it makes me feel a bit stronger than my breakfast mush."

Possibly I seemed to be laughing behind my handkerchief and Jack laughed in his turn.

"Well, that cup of blood is a lie," he remarked, "but I thought you were looking for something like that."

All Dressed Up
Jack began to walk around the room and Jack looks well when walking. He had on a greenish-blue checked pair of trousers and an open shirt when the interview began, but before it closed he had on a tie, a vest and a coat, and he looked very hard and he blushed very hard.

"Do you think," I gently inquired, "that the development of the body is likely to result in a corresponding lack of mind?"

"You mean, do I like the drama and literature? No, I don't," he said positively, probably recalling his efforts in the movies.

"I am just a fighting guy. Sometimes I wish I had gone beyond the grammar school, but there is no use whining now."

"Anyway, I would rather have my health and be a dumbhead than be a sickly lily-like chap, able to write a few sonnets and then to look for a quick end in some kind of feeble death."

"But Carpentier accomplished both," I said.

"I've My Points, Too"
"Carpentier is a gentleman and a greyhound," said Dempsey. "I am neither. I am slower on my feet than he is and slower in my mind perhaps, but I've got my points, too. I've never tried to be anything but myself. I have never faked and that will get you through. If God intended you to get through."

I rose to go.
"Isn't there just one little woman somewhere, Mr. Dempsey?" I pleaded.

"Yes," he said, raising his head. "There is mother. Change what I said. Put me down as saying that a man's man, a fight is a fight, and that some women are mothers."

On May 2, 1921, the wages of all employees would be reduced 20 per cent. and the existing agreement (which, either in its present or some other similar form, has been in existence for 15 years) would be terminated.

"2nd. By your direction, we submitted on March 29, 1921, to the trustees a proposed agreement for the year beginning on May 1, 1921, and thereafter in accordance with the terms of previous agreements, and accompanying said proposed agreement to the trustees a letter was sent which is still unanswered."

"3rd. On April 5, 1921, a special meeting of the joint conference committee was held at which, on account of the seriousness of the situation, it was voted to request the presence of the international president or the first vice president to aid and advise us in our conduct of the negotiations which you directed us to carry on."

but one arbitration of a discipline case. "During Mr. Donham's receivership, there were five arbitrations, including the form in which free transportation should be granted, the question of six or seven days' work in barns and shops, the Daniel Cahill case in Lawrence, the Rooke register case, and the first submission of the question of wages to the national war labor board in 1918.

"Since the present board of trustees has been in control, the following arbitrations have taken place: Revision of the wage award of the national war labor board in 1919, the Angelo Tashino case in Brockton, the wage arbitration in 1920 in which Hugh W. O'Brien was neutral arbitrator, the Herbert E. Burns and William H. Casey cases of Chelsea, and the Albert H. Hagan case of Salem and Jeremiah O'Leary case at Lawrence, and there are pending three arbitrations involving discipline—these concern the cases of William H. Spaulding of Chelsea, Cornack J. Carroll of Reading, and Eugene Morrill of Brockton. In two of these cases, neutral arbitrators have been agreed upon, and in the third an agreement was reached upon a neutral arbitrator, but he was disqualified by reason of ownership of stock in the company which he reported himself. It should be noted that he is an eminent lawyer and just man.

"The trustees, since taking office, have found it necessary for some reason or other (we think it is made perfectly clear now) to attempt to destroy the unions on this road. The entire policy of the management under President Sullivan, General Manager Goff, and subsequently under Receiver Donham has been changed. It has been difficult to get along, not only with the trustees and the higher officials but with the under officials because of some subtle change in management and policy with some definite object in view which until quite recently was effectively concealed.

"It seems strange that these trustees should find it necessary to suggest 49 different changes in their proposed agreement for next year abolishing many things which you have fought for during the last 15 years, which have come about as the result of negotiation, conference, compromise, agreement, and arbitration. On Feb. 23 the trustees said they wanted to abrogate the present contract which they say expires on May 2—with which section we disagree. Then they said on April 11, after there had been considerable newspaper discussion about arbitration, that they would arbitrate only questions affecting the meaning and intent of their proposal which means the old system of favoritism and partnership can be invoked against individuals and the whole theory of protection of men in their jobs is entirely and utterly destroyed. This is the so-called 'fake' arbitration. It is the shell of the name and not the substance. In this proposal the trustees had the assurance to suggest that the men will get the benefit of group life insurance. We are informed by an expert on group life insurance that the cost to the company for this would be $8 to $9 a year per man. If they ro-

duced the men's wages 20 per cent., the reduction in wage would average over $300 a man per year, so you can see the generosity of the trustees which is manifested in this proposal. Their generosity, in other words, netted them $290 at the expense of each man. Finally on April 18, they said they would arbitrate the wage question, but, if they did, would not enter into any agreement with the union; in other words, having been driven from their arbitrary position on April 11 when they submitted the agreement (a copy of which you have), they resort to a combination of both. They say, take what we give you with a 'fake' arbitration which we offer, or if you don't take that you cannot have any union agreement if you insist upon arbitrating wages.

"You and we stand for the principle of collective bargaining so that we and our families may have some security of employment without being driven into the slavery of individual bargaining in which we would be at the mercy of our employers, for some reasonable guarantee that we and our families will not be in want, for protection in our work against the oppression and tyranny of those who can by favoritism and otherwise deprive us of our just rights.

"We stand for the great principle of solidarity and the even greater principle of arbitration.

"We do not want the board of trustees as our court of last resort. We know what to expect from them.

"We have fought all these years through our organization and secured our present wages, hours and conditions which could never have been accomplished in any other way. We do not want to lose what we have attained.

"This is the crisis of our industrial lives. Its proper settlement means everything to us. Most of us have given the best part of our lives to this work. We have tried in every way to be fair, just and decent.

"What have the trustees done? Even while our negotiations were going on they have been parading through the streets of the principal cities of this system to car barns and elsewhere, truck loads of riot hells for strike breakers from other states in preparation for a strike which they are trying to force upon us. They boldly admit it.

"While we are preparing ballots for a ballot box election, they are holding meetings to enable you to vote upon their proposals, the most complete thing of the whole business is the unmitigated attempt of these trustees to intimidate, coerce, drive and threaten us into submission to their will even before we have a chance to vote.

"They have arrogantly announced what you can do, either that or lose your job.

"Such conduct is to be condemned in any set of employers, but it is so reprehensible as to be almost inconceivable in public officials. These trustees are supposed to represent the public of which we are just as much a part as they or any other citizen of Massachusetts.

"Our case is based upon the solid foundation of righteousness, truth, justice and fairness and upon that basis we confidently appeal to the fair-minded people of Massachusetts. Such an appeal has never been made in vain. We cannot believe that the people of this state are going to tolerate any such autocratic, arbitrary and high-handed dealing with a great body of employees in a public service industry. We are citizens of this great commonwealth. These public officials were appointed by the governor of Massachusetts. He can remove them.

"Policy of Terrorism"
In a statement by International Vice President O'Brien of the Amalgamated Union, further light is shed on the matter. Referring to the two proposals made by the company to the men, he gives the following figures: "A little over three per cent. of the men who voted were in favor of accepting one or the other of the company's proposals. Nearly ninety-seven per cent were in favor of rejecting them." Continuing, the statement reads, "Notwithstanding the great amount of unemployment, by reason of which many people are suffering, these men almost unanimously voted to suspend their duty to arbitrate. When I say arbitrate, I mean real arbitration. These very intelligent employees were able for themselves to distinguish between real arbitration and fake arbitration."

Vice President O'Brien charges the trustees with adopting "a policy of terrorism." He explains this accusation by stating that "they have paraded truckloads of cots through the public streets, have arranged to have them delivered at about the time when all the employees could see them. They have even sent strike breakers into power plants and asked our men to instruct them so as to enable them to take our men's places."

"The trustees are also charged with 'intimidating the public' and with 'spending from all the information that we get, many thousands of dollars of public money making contracts with strike-breaking agencies, restaurants, caterers and other people and are agreeing to pay much greater wages than our men are now receiving in order to break up our union."

GIBBS AND YOUNG AVILA
ARE REMATCHED

Local boxing fans will undoubtedly find John Young Avila and Woonsocket Joe Gibbs, the pair who recently engaged in a thrilling ten round bout here, have been re-matched by the Crescent A.A.

The second local meeting between these strenuous batters is set for next Thursday night at the Crescent rink and it will be anything like their last clash another rare treat is in store for devotees of the glove sport. Many fans in fact, who saw the last engagement pronounced it one of the greatest fights ever staged in this city. It was a real old time fight with everything that the word implies. The pair stood in there and fought and slugged at bewildering speed over the entire journey. More hard hitting and aggressive battling were seen in one round of this fight than is usually witnessed in a half dozen rounds of other encounters. Gibbs was awarded the decision but many believe that Avila can beat him if he follows up his leads and shows a little more aggressiveness. This he plans to do, hence the local fans like a bout worthy of a packed house.

New clubs are bubbling up in Boston almost over night. Under the boxing law the clubs in the big cities are about the only ones that can make money. Not all of the big town promoters, however, clean up, and very few of the small town organizations are able to show a balance on the right side of the ledger. The big reason for the inability of the small clubs to survive and prosper is the fact that the boxers get most of the money. Another factor is that owing to the exorbitant charge for a license young lads are not entering the game. Twenty-five dollars, which is the tax assessed main batters as well as preliminary performers, is a big barrier, and hence few are becoming registered. This forces the promoters to use semi-final performers and these lads now demand more than any main bout boxers received not very many years ago.

The boxing commission would make a very popular move if it reduced the registration fees for the beginners, and also resulted in more money for the other boxers. In this way the game would prosper and new talent would be developed.

This afternoon the commission is to give a hearing on the recent Montreal-Hermann bout in Boston.

MISS STERLING MEETS

MISS JACKSON

LONDON, April 25.—Miss Alexia Stirling, champion American woman fencer, opponent Miss Janet Jackson, holder of the world title, will meet Cecil Leitch, champion of England, and other widely known British women players at the West Hill golf course, Brookwood, today. The entrance fees will be used toward endowing hospitals in memory of the late Dr. Elsie Inglis, who commanded the Scottish Red Cross ambulance in Serbia, and was a prominent golfer. The contest was for 18 holes, medal play, and there were 125 entrants. The competitors played from the men's tees, this making the course longer than is usual for ladies' tournaments. The change suited the long straight drives among the contestants. At the conclusion of the contest prizes will be given for the best scratch score, for the best net return and the best nine hole hole-in-one during the morning, but conditions at noon were good.

LITTLE VISITS WITH
FEATHERED FRIENDS

By MARY SEAMAN
I always welcome the rose-breasted grosbeak. In some localities he is called "potato-bug eater," and he richly deserves a welcome from every body. Although the name is not high-sounding, any bird should be welcome in one's garden if he eats those loathsome beetles.
I looked over my small potato patch early one summer evening, and noted many potato bugs that deserved death. The two-sticks-and-squash method is sure, but messy, and I abhor it, so I decided to send the bugs on by the poison route next morning.
I arose with the birds—or thought I was doing so—to get in my daily work. But as I went into the garden I frightened up Mr. Grosbeak and his sober-looking, quaker-arrayed mate. Investigation revealed no potato bugs, although I looked underneath as well as on top of the leaves. My feathered friends had beaten me to the slaughter, and I know that I could now trust them to take care of the potato patch as long as they resided in the neighborhood. They picked a home right in an apple tree, and allowed no sandy potato bug to fatten in my garden.
On a potato bug diet this beautiful creature is a songster of extraordinary sweetness—a rolling warble, like yet unlike the robin's carol. The rose-beast's song is richer, fuller and more melodiously sweet, and if you hear him before you see him, you probably will look for a robin, then for a thrush and finally for an oriole before you locate all this melody issuing from the throat of a "potato bug eater."

EXTRA COALGRAM

This is the last week to obtain coal at the April prices. Don't belong to the "Put Off" Club organized Friday 13th, 1313. Join the "Get There" Club organized on a bright, beautiful, sunny day in the vernal time of 1921.

Now we are going to have a heart to heart talk with you and if you will give us your co-operation we can regulate this coal business better than any commission ever appointed, so here goes:—
This year will be the last hard year in the coal industry for several years. In 1922 we look for a decided change for the better though coal will never be as cheap as before the war as Anthracite Coal is being depleted. New England and a few other states are the only ones insisting on Anthracite. All the rest of the world uses Bituminous coal for domestic purposes. Here are a few facts we want to hang on a peg in your mind—18 tons of water are pumped for every ton of coal brought to the surface. In 1919 the Anthracite mines used 50,000,000 lbs. of explosives and 500,000,000 feet of timber for tunnels and gangways. Every 60 minutes 43 tons of air are forced into the mines for ventilation; 195 miles of tunnels and timbered gangways are annually driven in our anthracite mines and this is equal to driving 8 tunnels every year from Lowell to Boston. Coal constitutes 33% of all the freight on our railroads. During the last 20 years the population of the United States has increased 42% and the consumption of coal 172%. About 60% of the coal used in Lowell should be in the consumers cellars by October 1st, and if not put in by that time then there will be such a rush in the fall as to make a very serious condition. Therefore we say to you, put your orders in at the earliest moment. This is the last week to obtain the low prices. Pay for your coal this month and we will deliver it at your convenience up to a limited time.

WE HAVE ALL THE BEST COALS MINED.

SERMON TOPIC IS

"ALONE WITH GOD"

"Alone With God" was the subject of the sermon preached by Rev. William A. Bartlett in the First Congregational church yesterday morning. A hymn of the same name was sung by Andrew McCarthy to accompany the sermon. In the evening the preacher spoke on the topic, "A Man Who Thought Too Much."

"God does not do his work through kings and great people," the speaker said. "Those who are faithful, and serve us every day are the ones who should have the regard of the people. A great deal of the unhappiness of the world comes through false anticipation and by raising visions of what we think we ought to be, of words that ought to be spoken, and of deeds we think should be done. I can remember a man of this city, who felt that he had been overlooked for the office of superintendent of the Sunday school and 50 years later when he told me of this slight, there were tears in his eyes. Think of carrying a grievance like that for 50 years! When we stop to think of our own grievances, then our hearts are embittered. We cannot look forward towards getting our rewards and recognition in life through the people round about us. Put not your absolute trust in anyone. I do not mean by that we should distrust our fellow people, but they are not God.

RICHES BACK

Wraps are topped quilts often with riches very similar to those you wore some years ago—only very much more fluffy. And in some instances the riches leave the wraps and become a garment in themselves.

LOWELL TO ASSIST CHINA FAMINE FUND

The Lowell Federation of Churches, through its secretary, Rev. J. E. Kennedy, has sent to the clergymen of the city a letter stating the action of the federation in endorsing the China famine fund and asking that the matter be presented to the churches.

John C. Prince, field secretary of the New England committee, was in the city yesterday in arranging the details for the appeal. The China Hunger cards, so common in greater Boston, will be placed on sale the first of next week by some of the churches and in some of the prominent business places of the city by the Women's auxiliary of the Y.M.C.A. under the direction of the general secretary, H. F. Howe. The Union National bank will act as local treasurer.

NOT A HITCH AS NEW TIME ARRIVES

Father Time, after his hop, skip and jump from standard time to daylight saving yesterday morning, started to jog along today in much his accustomed way. There were a few late arrivals in stores, offices and factories of persons who had not become acclimated to the new time conditions.

At the Middlesex street station there was little of the confusion that marked the similar transition that took place last spring. Excited individuals did not rush about buttonholing officials to find out what was the matter with clocks and watches and railroad time tables. The clocks on the tower of the railroad station was one of those that did not get set ahead an hour Sunday morning. From now until the last Monday in next September it will continue to register time an hour behind that of the other clocks of the city.

Although there have been changes in the time tables the important trains arrive and leave practically on the same time as in the past. The whole system of train operation has simply been shifted over onto a daylight saving basis with the schedules on the time cards one hour earlier than Massachusetts time. The federal law compels the roads to operate on standard time.

Massachusetts appears to be the only state in the country in which daylight saving has been adopted as a result of legislative enactment. Most of the important industrial cities and towns of the northeastern section of the country, including New York city, have either set their clocks ahead as a result of local ordinances or general agreement, or else they are planning to do so in the near future.

THE FINEST HABITS AND CHARACTERISTICS

Humphrey O'Sullivan of this city has been requested by Humphrey E. Desmond of the Commerce Magazine, issued by the department of commerce at the University of Wisconsin, to tell that magazine what he considers the four finest habits a young man can cultivate and the four most worthwhile characteristics a young man ought to possess. Mr. O'Sullivan's views are to be printed in an early number of the magazine together with those of half a dozen other prominent business men. Mr. O'Sullivan's reply was as follows:

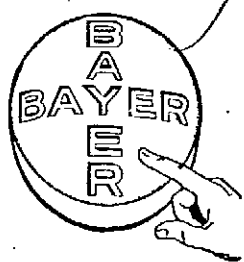

"My Dear Mr. Desmond: In prompt reply to your favor of April 21, I am pleased to say the finest habits a young man can cultivate in my estimation are: Promptness, truthfulness, honesty and industry, and the four most worthwhile characteristics a young man ought to possess are: Neatness, civility, alertness and ambition.

"I am handing you these two answers after reflecting upon 21 years of the most active kind of retail experience and 12 years as a national advertiser, and would insist that any young man who wants to make success his goal that he make up his mind to qualify 100 per cent. upon every heading I have specified.

Very truly yours,

PARIS, April 25.—Ninety per cent of the votes cast in the province of Tyrol, Austria, yesterday, in the plebiscite to express the sentiment of the people relative to fusion with Germany, were favorable to such a union, according to information reaching Paris today.

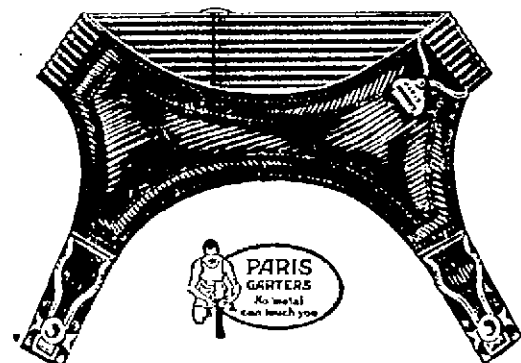

The plebiscite was only the registry of public opinion. Allied representatives in Vienna made representations to the government of the Austrian republic relative to the plebiscite, and Austria issued orders forbidding the voting, but this order was ignored.

means prettier teeth—accept it

This is an offer which millions have accepted. And glistening teeth seen everywhere show the good effects.

Make this free test. Then judge the benefits by what you see and feel.

To fight film

Dental science, after diligent research, has found ways to fight film on teeth. Careful tests have proved them beyond question. Now leading dentists everywhere advise their daily use.

The methods are embodied in a scientific tooth paste—Pepsodent. So all may regularly apply them. To countless homes they have brought already a new era in teeth cleaning.

How film ruins

Film is that viscous coat you feel. It clings to teeth, enters crevices and stays. The ordinary dentifrice does not effectively combat it. So, despite the tooth brush, it has caused tremendous damage.

Film absorbs stains, making the teeth look dingy. It forms the basis of tartar. It holds food substance which ferments and forms acid. It holds the acid in contact with the teeth to cause decay.

It breeds millions of germs and they, with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhea.

Pepsodent combats these film-caused troubles as nothing else has done.

Combats acid

Pepsodent also multiplies the salivary flow. It multiplies the starch digestant in the saliva, to digest starch deposits that cling. It multiplies the alkalinity of the saliva, to neutralize the acids which cause decay.

In these ways it acts as fruit acids do. With every use it multiplies Nature's teeth-protecting forces. Old methods had the opposite effect.

Watch it act

Send for a 10-Day Tube. Note how clean the teeth feel after using. Mark the absence of the viscous film. See how teeth whiten as the film-coats disappear.

A book we send tells the reason for each good effect. Judge what those results will mean to you and yours. Cut out the coupon now.

MRS. KARL MUCK DIES OF CANCER IN BERLIN

BOSTON, April 23.—Mrs. Anna Muck, wife of Dr. Karl Muck, former conductor of the Boston Symphony orchestra, is dead.

According to word that has come over the cables Mrs. Muck died of cancer on the 14th of April. She had suffered long and greatly and her last days were far from happy ones.

The story of Mrs. Muck's life reads almost like a great tragedy. Born of excellent parentage, highly educated, of a sweet and lovable disposition and exceedingly attractive, she met and captivated Dr. Muck at a time when women were studiously avoiding him and when music was his sole passion.

She moved the great music master as no woman to that time had done and became his wife. Honors were hers. Happiness was hers. She worshipped her husband on whom the entire musical world showered its praises.

Her husband rapidly made his way to the peak of the German music world, and Mrs. Muck soon became one of the most charming women in court and musical circles in Berlin. Emperor Wilhelm was her husband's best friend. Richard Strauss and Felix Weingartner were among his colleagues. Amid all the honor and glory Mrs. Muck moved with the gracious dignity of a queen, radiating charm and making lasting friendships.

Then came the call to America—to Boston. Her husband instantly won the hearts of musical America and under his leadership the Boston Symphony forged to the front of American musical organizations.

Mrs. Muck charmed those who so admired her husband.

Suddenly the world war was in full swing. Germany being condemned on all sides. Still her husband conducted the Symphony and all seemed well.

Then America entered the fray and soon Dr. Muck, her idol, tottered and fell. Soon her vision of her husband's love for her became dimmed with tears as she was brought to realize that he had been unfaithful not only to America and those who had placed him at the peak of success—but unfaithful to her.

The stories of his love-making to young Boston women, his avowals of everlasting love to women other than his wife, became public property, and he stood barred to the world.

Mrs. Muck returned to Germany feeling deeply and bitterly the odium cast upon her husband during his last months here. She had seen her husband lose his great honor in America. She had seen her country defeated and crushed. Her husband's unfaithfulness to her had been disclosed, and her great romance had been shattered.

Yet the quiet, charming, little woman remained loyal to her husband through it all. To her he was still her husband—even though not the lover. But the shock, the utter disappointment, the overthrow of her ideals bore heavily on her. She fell ill of cancer, and her final days were days of unhappiness and suffering.

REFUSE TO LEAVE HUT 84-Year-Old Man and Son and Daughter Defy Order —Still Claim Property

NEW YORK, April 23.—A steam shovel, used in excavating the site of a proposed modern apartment building, today was driving its nose toward a dilapidated one-room shack on Washington Heights where in reside 84-year-old Martin M. Molenaar, his son and daughter, claimants of $500,000 worth of the vast and thickly settled acreage to be seen from their doorstep.

These hundreds of acres, stretching in all directions as far as the naked eye may see, were included in the estate of William Molenaar, who died in 1912, leaving a quantity of land to which bequeathed the land to three sons and a daughter.

Claiming that disposition of these lands by his grandfather's heirs was contrary to the provisions of the will, the present occupants of the hut and his children have been there eight years, hoping against hope that they could prove their title rights. Several years ago a supreme court decision blasted the hopes of the trio, but still they remained.

Ordered by a contractor to move, they refused, and now, like the ticking of a clock, each plunging of the steam-shovel's nose brings nearer the closing hour of the Molenaar's regime.

Women Vote In Belgium for First Time

BRUSSELS, April 23.—Returns trickled in slowly today from the municipal and commercial elections held yesterday in Belgium, the results thus far known showing that neither the clericals nor the socialists achieved the successes they expected. The clericals lost much ground in their former strongholds in Flanders, while the socialists, for whom predictions of a large majority in Antwerp had been made, polled only about one-third of the votes cast there. On all sides much splitting of tickets was reported. The vote of the women cast for the first time in the history of Belgium caused no upsets of expectations, so far as could be determined.

Happily solves the problem of how to protect bread, cakes, pies, etc., and keep them fresh and sweet.

You will know them by their olive color. To have a clear, pink skin, bright eyes, no pimples, a feeling of buoyancy like childhood days you must get the cause—Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets get on the liver and bowels like colonel—yet have no dangerous after effects.

They start the bile and overcome constipation. Millions of boxes are sold annually at 15c and 30c. Take one or two nightly and not the pleasing results.

For a list of the above illustrations are shown different views of the famous Sterling Combination Cooker. The view to the right shows the 1-quart sauce-pan. In the center is the 2-quart cooking or serving dish. In the figure on the left the 2-quart vessel is shown set into the 4-quart sauce-pan, thus forming a double boiler for cereals, casseroles, soups, etc. Please note that the Sterling Combination Cooker is composed of only two vessels—not three and one cover. The third figure in the illustration is necessary in order to show the great usefulness of the Cooker. The sauce-pan has polished rubberized handle. Above these three views is shown the double-boiler mode of extra heavy metal, with rubberized handle for the best serving kettle, with rubberized handle, the quart tipped sauce-pan, the 2-quart cooking pan, and the 4-quart serving dish. Price for entire assortment of aluminumware, without the Home Comfort Bread and Cake Cabinet, $9.95. Payable $1.45 in ten days, and then $2 a month for four months.

The Home Comfort Bread and Cake Cabinet may be ordered separately or with the assortment of Sterling Aluminumware. The Cabinet is made of galvanized steel, and is guaranteed not to rust. It is finished in aluminum, which gives it a beautiful appearance. It has a double boiler for cereals, casseroles, soups, etc., and a really beautiful piece of furniture as well. Happily solves the problem of how to protect bread, cakes, pies, etc., and keep them fresh and sweet.

Germany at the London conference, which the allies summarily rejected. Note Not Made Public.

The German government is refraining from making public today its note to the United States on reparations. In order to give President Harding, it is explained, an opportunity to consider and make inquiries concerning it, if he desires, before forwarding it to the allies.

Allen Defer Decision

LONDON, April 23.—Decision as to what action the allies will take in enforcing their reparations demands upon Germany has been deferred until next Saturday. On that day, the supreme allied council will meet either in Paris or London, and it may be the United States by that time will have formally communicated to the entente the contents of Germany's latest proposals. If such formal action has taken place, the acceptance or rejection of the German terms will be decided upon, and a final procedure for the future will be determined.

Germany's "Final Word"

Germany's note to President Harding, believed to be the "final word" of the Weimar ministry, was handed to E. L. Drexel, American commissioner in Berlin, last night. It is probable it will be decided and laid before President Harding early today.

There was an impression here that the German proposals might not be formally communicated to the allied capitals until after at least an outline had been informally sent to members of the supreme council, and some intimation as to the acceptability of the proposals had been given.

"Liberal Compromise"

Unofficial advice from Berlin declares Germany has offered a "liberal compromise" between the allied demands, as formulated at Paris last January, and the German counter proposals laid before the entente leaders in this city early in March. The German government was to submit the text of its note to the foreign relations committee of the reichstag today, and then go before the legislative body to explain its position, and perhaps demand a vote of confidence.

The degree of success that attends the latest effort of Berlin to reach a settlement with the entente, may determine the future of the Weimar regime.

Beyond reaching a decision to submit the whole reparations question to the supreme council next Saturday, yesterday's conference between Prime Minister Lloyd George and Premier Briand appears to have been an informal exchange of views. The plans of France for the further occupation of the Ruhr basin and the Westphalian industrial district of Germany were fully discussed, and it seems Great Britain will be at least nominally represented in the forces which take over these regions if such a step should be decided upon by the supreme council.

Paris Papers Pleased

PARIS, April 23.—Entire satisfaction with the result of yesterday's conference at Lymphen, England, between Premier Briand and Prime Minister Lloyd George, was expressed by newspapers here today. The Echo de Paris declared that the energy of M. Briand had convinced Mr. Lloyd George of the justice of the French point of view. The newspaper adds that the two premiers were agreed on the necessity of the United States resuming her place in the supreme allied council.

There's no bluff to this! Our word is our bond. We live up to everything we claim—and we lead, not trail others.

Not Cables, But How to Haul Stone Money, Is Yap's Chief Worry

A PHOTOGRAPH OF THE ISLAND OF YAP, TAKEN FROM ONE OF THE BOATS THAT INFREQUENTLY CALLS THERE

What manner of place is this island of Yap that the whole world is yapping about?

It slumbered almost unknown for centuries until a post-war argument over ocean cables threw it into the glare of the world's spotlight. The United States protests the Japanese mandate over Yap, awarded by the League of Nations, because Yap is an important cable station and the mandate would give the Japs cable control in case of war.

The world may be stirred up over it, but the people who have summered in Yap all their lives don't give a yap how many cables are landed there, judging by the history of them written by W. H. Furness, 3rd.

W. H. called his book "The Island of Stone Money." That's because the yaps pay for their cigarettes with round stones with holes in the middle. If they buy a pack at a time they pay with stones as big as Grant's tomb.

Furness stayed in Yap for two months in 1903. He stayed that long because boats only landed there five times a year.

Yap is the westernmost of the Caroline Islands in the Pacific. It resulted from a volcano explosion years ago.

It was discovered by the Portuguese in 1527. Spain annexed it 150 years later. Germany bought the group of islands at the close of the Spanish-American war for $3,300,000.

Yap is three to five miles wide, surrounded by coral reefs and the ocean. About 1000 Yaps live there. And a handful of white men.

Yaps have coffee-colored skins, curly black hair, high cheek bones and hooked noses. They are very docile since prohibition went into effect years ago and the supply of bootleg has run out. When they had booze they were wild men.

There is no woman suffrage in Yap. Each tribe has a bachelor house where men meet and dance and sing. The women stay home. Only one woman is allowed in each bachelor's house. She's stolen from another tribe.

It is bad manners for any one in Yap to enter a neighbor's house without special invitation. But you don't have to go in to see what's going on. Yaps are firm believers in ventilation.

Children are common property and are taken care of like a community drove of cattle.

Girls of Yap are very modest—they wear long skirts made of grass. That's all they do wear except earrings.

Motor Cruiser in Race With Havana Flyer

MIAMI, Fla., April 25.—Gar A. Wood, Detroit and New York manufacturer and sportsman, left here at midnight in his 900-horsepower 50-foot cabin cruiser, the Gar II Jr., in a race to New York against the Havana Special of the Atlantic Coast Line. He has set a 41-hour schedule for the run and, if it is without mishap, it will carry him into New York three hours before the flyer arrives. The boat broke all express cruiser records in the regatta here in February. Aboard with Wood is C. F. Chapman, editor of Motor Boating.

"Oldest Poilu of France" Dies in Paris

PARIS, April 24.—Charles Surugue, "the oldest Poilu of France" veteran of both the Franco-Prussian and the world war, died here today aged 82 years. He served as a volunteer throughout the war of 1870-71, volunteered again in 1915, at the age of 71, and was assigned to duty as a sapper. He joined the army at Souchez and was in constant service thereafter. He was cited in orders three times, was made a second lieutenant after the Verdun campaign, awarded the Legion of Honor in 1917, and made an officer of the Legion in 1919.

TAKES CARE OF 5 CHILDREN

Mrs. Taylor's Sickness Ended by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

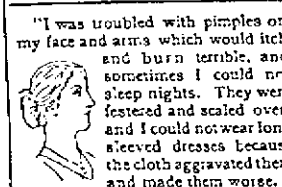

Roxbury, Mass.—"I suffered continually with backache and was often dependent, had dizzy spells, and at my monthly periods it was almost impossible to keep around at my work. Since my last baby came two years ago my back has been worse and no position I could get in would relieve it, and doctor's medicine did not help me. A friend recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I have found great relief since using it. My back is much better and I can sleep well. I keep house and have the care of five children so my work is very trying and I am very thankful I have found the Compound such a help. I recommend it to my friends and if you wish to use this letter I am very glad to help any woman suffering as I was until I used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

Mrs. MAUDE E. TAYLOR, 6 St. James Place, Roxbury, Mass.

Backache is one of the most common symptoms of a displacement or derangement of the female system. No woman can make the mistake of trying to overcome it by heroic endurance, but profit by Mrs. Taylor's experience and try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Mrs. Hazel Rounds Tells How Cuticura Healed Pimples

"I was troubled with pimples on my face and arms which would itch and burn terrible, and sometimes I could not sleep nights. They were festering and scaled over, and I could not wear long sleeve dresses because the cloth aggravated them and made them worse."

"I tried several different remedies without any results. Seeing an advertisement for Cuticura Soap and Ointment I sent for a free sample and was relieved so much I bought more. In less than a month I was completely healed and I only used one cake of Cuticura Soap and half a box of Cuticura Ointment."

OFF TO CALIPH CAMELS

HOW MANY ANIMALS HAVE WE BROUGHT BACK? ASKED MR. FLIPPETY-FLAP.

Nancy and Nick and Flippety-Flap sat on top of an empty hand-wagon and talked things over. "How many animals have we brought back to the circus?" Nick counted up on his fingers. "The elephant, Mrs. Kangaroo and Kicky Kang, her son; the Lion family, Mr. and Mrs. Seal, Gyp the Giraffe, the Monkey family and old Granny Hippo and her nephew. That's all the animals I've got, Nancy, you'll have to help count next time." "Oh, the excellent part of it is, they are all happy and glad they came; better still, they wouldn't leave now if all the gnomes in fairyland let them out and handed them their railroad tickets home on a gold plate, but best of all, I saw a man put a big stock of pink tickets into a drawer this morning. That means that we are to have a real circus this year." (Copyright, 1921, The Lowell Sun)

BERLIN YIELDS IN NEW PROPOSAL

To Offer Payment of 200,000,000,000 Gold Marks for Reparations

Pledges as Guarantees—Offer Called a "Liberal Compromise"

BERLIN, April 25. (By the Associated Press.)—The payment by Germany of 200,000,000,000 gold marks for reparations is, roughly, the proposal submitted by Germany for transmission to the allied conference last week to sources close to the government. The payments will be spread over a period of from 30 to 42 years, or less, according to Germany's economic recovery.

Economic pledges in the way of goods and participation in German industries are offered as guarantees. It is stated.

The proposals refrain from proposing the assumption by Germany of the allied debts to the United States.

The offer, it is indicated, inclines more toward the terms formulated by the allies at the Paris conference last winter, than to the offer made by Germany.

COMPLETE AUDIT OF CITY BOOKS

Everett F. Tarbox, who was hired some months ago to conduct the annual audit of the books of the city of Lowell, has completed his work and submitted a report to Commissioner James E. Donnelly of the finance department. The report will be presented to the municipal council at its meeting tomorrow morning and for the first time in the history of the city, the annual audit will become a part of the record of that body.

The new procedure will be inaugurated at the suggestion of City Auditor J. Joseph Hennessy, who believes that some permanent official record of the yearly audits should be kept. He said that the finance department had by the time the audit was completed in the past, but that the city clerk was the official custodian of records and that he should be in charge of them. He says that he considers the audit important enough to become a part of the permanent records of the city and that, inasmuch as the council orders the audit, a report should be made to that body and not simply to the commissioner of finance.

Mr. Hennessy says that there is nothing to prevent an auditor from

Marine Engineers to Strike May 1

NEW YORK, April 25.—The Marine Engineers' Beneficial association today issued a strike proclamation to take effect on May 1. This announcement was made after their representatives broke off negotiations with the American Steamship Owners' association, who have been holding conferences regarding a new working agreement. The union leaders asserted that 100,000 men, oilers and water-tenders would support the move, and predicted that the strike might develop into international proportions, as the British engineers had deferred negotiations with their employers until after April 29, in order to await the outcome of the American situation.

Representatives of the men withdrew after refusing to make wage reduction of 25 to 30 per cent. one of the bases of discussion in drafting the new contract.

In a statement issued at the close of the conference, Winthrop L. Marvin, vice-president and general manager of the owners' association, said that the engineers refused to discuss "even the slightest reduction in the present wage scale." He said, however, that they were willing to discuss working rules.

In reply to an appeal to the engineers to get together and work out a mutually acceptable agreement, Mr. Marvin quoted the engineers' representatives as saying:

"We can discuss no reduction of wages."

Mr. Marvin said that Captain Eugene E. O'Donnell, chairman of the ship owners' committee told the engineers that the marine engineers' Beneficial association was making itself responsible for a savage blow at the life of the American merchant marine, of which the greater portion is now owned by the whole American people.

Prior to the conference the engineers' representatives announced that their organization was prepared to back up its demands "by every resource within its power."

The organization claims a membership of approximately 15,000.

JITNEY OWNER GETS VERDICT FOR $500

A jury in the superior court this afternoon reported a verdict for $500 in favor of the plaintiff in the action of Constantine Beonomitis, of Decatur, vs. the Eastern Massachusetts Street Railway Company. An automobile belonging to the plaintiff was demolished by being struck by a trolley car of the defendant corporation on the Lawrence boulevard, November 13, 1919. The damaged auto was being used as a jitney, and previous to the collision had run into a stalled automobile and skidded on to the street railway tracks.

Trial was begun this morning of the suit of Vesta A. Davis, of Chelmsford vs. the inhabitants of the town of Chelmsford and Charles R. Forsyth, the town's superintendent of streets. The plaintiff asks for recompense for the failure of the defendants to carry out the terms of an alleged oral contract for the employment of a team of horses on highway work during the entire construction period of 1920. She alleges that work under the contract ceased June 8, 1920, and that she suffered loss as a consequence.

Stanley E. Qua, of Qua, Howard & Rogers, appeared for the plaintiff; F. A. Fisher for the defendants.

destroying all the records of past audits if he should have occasion to do so, but if they are placed in the hands of the city clerk, he is legally responsible for their safe keeping. Accordingly, the contents of Mr. Tarbox's 1921 report will remain in the realm of things unrevealed until tomorrow morning.

NOTE NOT YET RECEIVED HERE

Unexplained Delay in Transmission From Berlin of Counter Proposals

Were Handed to American Commissioner at Berlin Last Night

WASHINGTON, April 25.—There has been an unexplained delay in the transmission from Berlin of the German counter-proposals on reparations which were handed last night to American Commissioner Dresel at the German capital. State department officers had expected to have the document before them at the beginning of business today, but when they reached their offices they found that it had not reached the department.

The German memorandum is understood to be a lengthy one and if such is the case, it probably was not put on the cables until late last night, as considerable time would have been required for coding it. Probably an equally long time will be necessary for decoding after its arrival here.

In advance of the receipt of the document, administration officials declined to comment on its reported contents, nor would they indicate whether it would be made public immediately after its arrival. It is generally expected, however, that the text will be withheld until Secretary Hughes can confer with President Harding and with the French and British ambassadors.

As the day wears away without sign of the German note, officials began to be puzzled regarding the delay. They could offer no explanation as no word had come from Commissioner Dresel.

It was indicated that the department was without information as to the contents of the German communication.

The allies, under the decisions reached in Paris in January, demanded that Germany pay 226,000,000,000 gold marks or approximately $55,500,000,000, the payment to be spread over a period of 42 years. Germany's exports, in addition, would bear an export duty of 12 per cent to go to the allies, for an identical period.

In the German counter-proposals submitted in London on March 1, Dr. Walter Simons, the German foreign minister, offered what the allied experts estimated to amount to approximately $12,500,000,000, of which Germany claimed $5,000,000,000 had already been paid, leaving the actual German offer about $7,500,000,000. This offer was coupled with the condition that Upper Silesia should remain German and that free commercial privileges throughout the world should be restored to Germany.

JAIL SENTENCE FOR AUTOIST

Man Charged With Operating Automobile While Under Influence of Liquor

Sentenced Today to Two Months in the House of Correction

Judge Enright Issues Strong Warning to Drunken Drivers of Motor Vehicles

One defendant was sentenced to two months in jail, on charges of operating an automobile while under the influence of liquor, and a warning to motorists was pronounced by Judge Thomas J. Enright in the police court this morning. His Honor declared that imprisonment will be his sentence in all cases which come before the court in future, where driving of a machine while intoxicated is shown. "This action will be taken," he said, "regardless of what the superior court may allow. He cautioned drivers of automobiles that he will hold them responsible for all damage or injuries caused by them, if they have been drinking to the extent of drunkenness." "Spring and summer are coming, and automobiles are getting Continued to Last Page

QUESTIONS WITNESSES IN MURDER CASE

A number of persons, who are to be called to testify next week in the trial of the Tallen murder case in the superior court, were questioned today by Assistant District Attorney Frank Goldman as to their knowledge of happenings in connection with the alleged slaying of the Middlesex-street storekeeper. At the close of the examination, Mr. Goldman stated that a considerable array of witnesses would be called by the prosecution during the trial of the case.

The case is to open next Monday in this city where the veniremen for the jury have been ordered to report. After the jury has been selected it is expected that a view of the premises where the alleged murder occurred will be made, and that the trial will then be adjourned to Cambridge. Mr. Goldman asserted that he had not heard of any more being made to have the whole of the trial held in Lowell. He said that there were no suitable accommodations for the care of the prisoners here unless the Lowell jail is opened, and that to have it opened, it would be necessary to obtain an order from the county commissioners.

According to Mr. Goldman it is uncertain how long it will take to conduct that part of the trial that is to be held in this city. Each of the three defendants is entitled to 32 challenges, making a total of 96, and if a considerable portion of these are used, considerable time may be consumed in selecting a jury.

Sec. Weeks Acts to Halt Granting Ordinance Patents to Germans

WASHINGTON, April 25.—Activity of German citizens in obtaining patents from the American government embodying many of the principles of American railroad artillery and other ordinance led Secretary Weeks to ask congress today for legislation limiting the granting of patents to foreigners. The secretary said 201 ordinance patents had been obtained here by German citizens since last July 1, and all transferred to Frederick Krupp, the great ordinance manufacturer at Essen.

"It seems to me significant," said Secretary Weeks in a letter to Vice President Coolidge, "that out of 12 patents selected at random, eight pertain to railroad artillery, and in view of the circumstances, I feel constrained to bring the matter to your attention for such action as you shall deem desirable in the interest of the United States."

"Corrective legislation seems necessary. The principle involves the policy of the government granting patents to nations or countries with whom the United States is at war. Furthermore, the question arises whether we should

Britain Ready to Support France in Plan to Occupy Westphalian Coal Fields

LONDON, April 25.—(By the Associated Press).—Prime Minister Lloyd George stated in the house of commons this afternoon that if the new German reparations proposals, which had not yet been received, proved unsatisfactory Great Britain would support France at next Saturday's allied conference in her proposals for occupation of the Westphalian coal fields.

Knox Resolution Favorably Reported

WASHINGTON, April 25.—The Knox peace resolution was reported favorably today by the senate foreign relations committee. A few of the democratic committee members voted in opposition and indicated that they would carry their fight to the senate floor.

Although the committee made no decision as to the time for bringing the resolution before the senate for debate, Chairman Lodge said he planned to call it up tomorrow.

The vote on the measure was nine to two, all the republican supporting it and the two democrats present—Pomeroy, Ohio, and Pittman, Nevada, voting in opposition. Other democrats who were absent were given the privilege of recording themselves with the opposition later.

Minor changes only were made in the resolution as revised by Senator Knox, its author. The principal change was to amplify the section to end the state of war with the imperial Austrian government, making it similar to the provision to end the status of war with the German imperial government.

ROAD IS READY FOR EMERGENCY

Local Union Asks for Conference With the Municipal Council

Men Do Not Want to Strike if They Can Avoid It

Last Street Railway Strike Here Took Place in June, 1919

Claiming that the Eastern Massachusetts Street Railway Co. trustees are ignoring their demands for arbitration of differences, the employees of the road are considering the question of a strike. The employees of the Lowell division have voted, 163 to 5, to go on strike, if the trustees refuse to arbitrate. The carmen, however, emphasize

HAVERHILL COUNCIL URGES ARBITRATION

HAVERHILL, April 25.—The Municipal council at its meeting today, passed an order asking the public trustees of the Eastern Massachusetts Street Railway Co. not to make any changes in fares or wages until such questions are submitted to arbitration. This action is a result of the vote of the city employees, favoring a strike in protest of the 20 per cent wage cut, announced by the trustees as effective May 2. Peter J. Rooney of Worcester, international officer of the street railway employees' organization, was present with a delegation of local employees, and presented the workers' case to the council after the order had been passed.

size the fact that they do not want to strike if they can avoid doing so without sacrificing their rights.

It was learned today that the local street railwaymen's union, through its president, Theodore J. Powers, had asked the municipal council for a private conference at city hall next Wednesday, presumably to discuss the present situation. It is proposed to have the members of the council, selectmen from neighboring towns in which the road operates, two officers of the international union and officers of the local platform men and barn workers present.

LIQUOR CASES PRESENT MANY ANGLES

The liquor situation displayed some odd angles in the police court this morning, when sundry charges connected with the forbidden beverage resulted in two cases. Refusal to pay a fine, testimony that a man about to be arrested for drunkenness continued to regale himself with moonshine in the presence of the officers, and a default. Nicholas Saxton, charged with illegal sale of liquor at his variety store on Common street, was fined $150. He was notified through an interpreter of the court's decision, and he responded via the same medium that he would not pay said fine. Judge Enright proclaimed a willingness to have him accept a jail alternative if he felt so disposed, but when it was explained Continued to Page Twelve

PRESENTS "HOLY CITY"

League of Catholic Women
in Second Oratorio—Mrs.
Slattery Gives Address

The presence of exceptional musical ability among the members of the League of Catholic Women was again demonstrated yesterday afternoon in Associate hall at the regular monthly meeting of the league when the organization's choral club presented Gault's oratorio, "The Holy City," in capable fashion.

Under the general direction of Mrs. John T. Donohue, the members of the club, assisted by the league orchestra and several men singers from the Catholic church choir, delighted a large audience by its carefully prepared presentation of the delightful and impressive scores of the noted oratorio.

Miss Grace Gilday Donohue also contributed materially to the success of the affair by her artistic playing of the harp. The chorus, under the direction of Mrs. J. W. Green, was at its best and gave the choral portions of the oratorio with volume or subdued tone, as the intent of the music directed. The soloists were Mrs. Joseph W. Green, Miss Marietta G. Moran, Miss Kathleen Jennings, Mrs. Mary M. Mooney, Miss Mary Mack, Miss Mary Casey, Miss Teresa Slattery and Messrs. William Cookin, Jas. S. King, Timothy Finnegan, John Doyle and Herbert Froctor. Miss Maria J. C. O'Donnell led the league orchestra in her usual capable fashion.

Following the oratorio, Mrs. Francis T. Slattery, president of the League of Catholic Women of the arch-diocese of Boston, gave a brief address on the subject of Catholic organization. She said that the Boston league had grown from a small membership of 1200 to an organization of 2500 members, while the total membership of the league in the entire diocese numbers 450,000. She said that those figures indicated the advance of Catholic women to the front rank in civic as well as religious life. Through the privilege of the ballot Catholic women are going to be the greatest influence to stabilize American public opinion that the world has ever known, she predicted.

She said that Catholic women are not opposing the Smith-Towner educational bill because they are Catholics, but because it is taking away the

Here Is a Fine Laxative For a Little Baby

Millions of Mothers find Dr. Caldwell's
Syrup Pepsin safe for infants

WHAT young mother has not often asked herself the question, "What is the best thing I can give my baby for constipation?" It is a very important question, as constipation is the basis of most ills of infancy and childhood.

Give half a teaspoonful of a combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin. You can obtain it at any drug store under the name of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It is a mild, gentle medicine that children willingly take, and a bottle that costs only sixty cents is enough to last an average family several months.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin has been used by millions of mothers, for the prescription has been sold in drug stores for thirty years. It is the same prescription Dr. W. B. Caldwell, who is now in his 82nd year, used in his extensive practice for half a century. It is the largest selling liquid laxative in the world. Last year eight million bottles were bought in drug stores. You can make no mistake in giving Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin to your baby.

RIGHTS OF PARENTS AND CITIZENS OF THE STATE

She maintained that there need be no fear of Catholic women not living up to the highest ideals of Americanization because every principle in the constitution of the United States and in the Declaration of Independence is taken from Catholic doctrine.

In any discussion of capital and labor she said that careful study of the subject should be given with a view to guarding against socialism.

The speaker also told of the National Catholic Women's council which has been formed in Washington and which every Catholic women's organization in the country has been asked to join. She said that the ideals and principles of that organization are the ideals and principles of the church and that there was great need of a national Catholic women's organization so that they might partake of some of the benefits of other national organizations.

Mrs. Alice T. Lee, league president, presided. In opening, she read a letter of regret from Cardinal O'Donnell at his inability to be present. He congratulated the Lowell league on its excellent work and sent his best wishes for future success.

It was announced that Mrs. Mary Walsh Brennan, a local lawyer and a member of the league, would give a talk on "Women's Part in Law," before the members of the Margaret Brent club league, Tuesday, May 3, at 1.15, in the league office in Central street.

The social committee will conduct a May party Thursday, May 19, for the benefit of the new building fund. The educational committee will open a spring exhibition of millinery at the league rooms at 1 p. m. next Wednesday, to continue Wednesday and Thursday.

Members of the executive board of the league present at yesterday's meeting and other guests included Hon. Francis P. Slattery of Boston and Mrs. Francis P. Scanlon, president of the Boston Margaret Brent Club league.

THE STRAND

Elaine Hammerstein, one of the screen's most charming exponents of demure simplicity, will again be the leading attraction at The Strand for the first three days of the coming week. The beautiful Seznick star will be seen this time in her latest production of the film, entitled "Pleasure Seekers." An original story by John Lynch, and scenario by Edward Montague, a writing combination that has been responsible for many recent photoplay successes.

The story of "Pleasure Seekers" concerns the career of a young girl who lives with her grandfather, an aged minister, in the small town of South Paradise. One day she chances to meet the son of a wealthy New York business man who has been sent into the world to make his own living. The man is an idler and spendthrift, but the girl finds in him something that appeals to her sense of companionship. Shortly after the death of her grandfather she marries him and returns to New York City. It is then that their life together really begins and the girl finds that she has taken a greater task than she at first bargained for. The role of Mary Murdock is a typical Hammerstein part, and the feelings of the observer will be divided between sympathy and admiration for the courageous girl who quickly but firmly wins her way to happiness. Beautifully staged with many charming exterior scenes, this photoplay is said to carry an atmosphere of refinement and optimism that is most fascinating.

"The Little Fool," an adaptation from Jack London's "The Little Lady of the Big House," will be the second feature for the first of the week. Milton Sills will head the all-star cast engaged in its presentation. It is the drama of "Dick" Forrest, a wealthy ranch owner, and his wife, Paula. The latter falls in love with the husband's chum, and is about to leave the paternal residence forever. At the last moment Paula realizes that she does not really know her own mind. The story is packed with really the greatest London story ever translated to the screen.

Residents these two big features there will be the usual comedy and weekly as well as musical numbers of genuine merit. Don't miss this exceptional bill. For the week-end, beginning Monday, George Walsh in "Number 17" and Gladys Walton in "Rich Girl" will be shown, and also a Charlie Chaplin comedy.

B. F. KEITH'S THEATRE

Bobby Bernard, one of the most untutored of comedians portraying He-low characters, will be the headliner of the big bill at the B. F. Keith theatre, this week, beginning this afternoon. "A Wise Guy" is the particular vehicle in which Bernard will appear, and it is not only laughter all the way through, but Hugh Herbert who wrote it for him, has actually supplied a real plot. Bernard is one of Broadway's most likable comedians. Comedy is his long suit all the time, and he plays it for full 20 minutes, and never does an audience tire of him.

Russ Brown and Connie O'Donnell in their delightful piece of fun-making, "Frontiering in Fun," will more than live up to the splendid reputation they have gained elsewhere. They are really two of the very funniest men in vaudeville, and that is placing a very high value on their work. Their act is one in which the audience is bound to get full value. Of that there is no manner of doubt.

"The Melody Garden," in which six handsome young women appear, is another act which will qualify as being a lynchpin. All of the young women are exceedingly musical, and every one is a singer, as well as being instrumentalists. Furthermore, the stage settings of this act are far and away above the ordinary.

Of excellent calibre is the work of Claudia Coleman, who will give her formidable "Feminine Viper" show. A handful of them to offer to an audience, and each differs materially from the other. Then there are Clinton and Rooney—the Rooney being a sister of the celebrated Earl. Will and Blondy are a pair of marvelous youngsters and Lawton is one of the most novel of jugglers.

MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE

The beautiful Yosemite valley, one of the famous garden spots of the world, formed the background for many of the exterior scenes filmed for the exterior scenes of the feature, "The Love Special," the feature of the program for Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. More than a week was spent there by Mr. Reid and his company getting "shots" for his new production. "The Love Special" is a story of absorbing interest and will be well received by Mr. Reid's many local admirers. The other feature for the week, "Buried Treasure," starring Marion Davies, is a striking production having to do with the theory of reincarnation. Scenes of ancient and medieval splendor make it a picture of exceptional beauty. A comedy and the International News round out the bill.

OPERA HOUSE

In the selection of that delightful comedy drama, "The Girl Patsy," by the Opera House management for presentation this week at the Lowell Playhouse, again excellent judgment has been displayed in meeting the demands of the patrons, and at the same time unusual opportunity is offered the members of the company to reflect rare capabilities as actors and actresses.

"The Girl Patsy" will be shown here for the first time, and judging from the unqualified success it enjoyed in all other theatrical centres, there is no question but what it will score heavily during its local run. It's a play after the style of "Peggy Sledge," with Miss Marguerite Fields portraying the role of "Patricia Davis," the scapegrace siren of the school. Those who remember Miss Fields in such a character will look forward with pleasurable anticipation to the coming presentation. All of the sweet charm of simplicity and human interest is there for reflection. And in it Miss Fields will find exceptional chance to indicate her capabilities as seldom before. Milton Hyron, the leading man, will also be for meeting the demands of his one of his best opportunities.

BRIDAL VEIL FLOUR

"Wheat Is Wheat," But There Is a Vast Difference in Wheats

DO you know that the wheat plant is a most delicately sensitive one?

Excesses of heat or cold at crucial growing periods will greatly damage it, and affect the character and quality of the wheat kernel produced. Like the human body, it is susceptible to many diseases, some of which are common in certain sections. The wheat plant is also the host of many insects and parasites, which materially affect the quality of the wheat kernel produced. Few users of wheat flour realize with what care wheat must be selected in order to secure a good, wholesome family flour.

BRIDAL VEIL FLOUR is made only of the choicest and most carefully selected hard wheats, thereby insuring not only a wholesome product, but a flour of unsurpassed quality for family use. It is just as essential that you get good flour as that you get good milk.

APPOINTMENT FOR LOCAL THEATRE MANAGER

Announcement was made today of the appointment of Walter J. Nelson, managing director of the Merrimack Square theatre in this city, as manager and buyer of the film department of the A. S. Black New England theatre with headquarters in Boston. In his new position Mr. Nelson will be in direct supervision of the purchase of photoplays used in 47 theatres extending from Utica, N. Y., to Houston, Tex., popularly known as the Black circuit.

However, Mr. Nelson will not be compelled to relinquish his position as manager of the Merrimack Square theatre but will hold both positions, turning over many of the details of the management of the local house to Assistant Manager John T. McElroy. Mr. Nelson's duties as film manager will consist of reviewing scores of pictures every week at the various exchanges in Boston and selecting those suitable for presentation in the various cities of the Black circuit. Any photoplay which he deems suitable for presentation in all of the Black houses is assured of running 108 days. Some of the theatres change their program daily, others every two days and others, like the Merrimack Square theatre, every three days. In a few instances, where an exceptionally notable production is being shown, the showing time often continues for a week.

All the large motion picture producing firms have exchanges in Boston where there are projection rooms in which nearly every picture is shown for the benefit of buyers from the various circuits. Sometimes, one of the Boston theatres is engaged for this trial showing so that all the orchestral effects and the atmosphere of a real theatre may be obtained to bring out the particular virtues of any single production.

Inasmuch as the selection of proper photoplays to suit the taste of the public in any particular city forms the secret of the success of a motion picture circuit, Mr. Nelson's new position is one of no little responsibility. However, he has had previous experience in this work and his friends in Lowell are confident that he will meet with success. Co-operating with him in his new position will be P. H. Maxon, former manager of the Rialto in New Haven, Conn., who has been appointed publicity manager of the newly created department.

Mr. Nelson will begin his new duties at once and will devote several days each week to the work in Boston.

CAUSES FOR FALLING OFF IN EXPORTS

NEW YORK, April 23.—The big fall off in value of merchandise exported from the United States is due in a considerable part to lower prices. We scarcely realize, says a statement by the National City bank of New York, the reduction in export prices which has occurred in the last few months and the effect of this reduction upon our export trade. While doubtless a part of the marked decline recorded in the March export figures is due to a reduction in the quantity of certain lines of produce exported, the fact that many of the principal factors forming our exports are now going abroad at practically half the former price per unit of quantity accounts in considerable part for the decline in the total value of merchandise exported.

While figures of export prices in March are not yet available, those of February, 1921, as recorded by the government, indicate that many of the important articles now passing out of the country are going at less than half the price per unit of quantity of those being exported a few months earlier. Take cotton, for example, one of the big factors in our export trade, the official records of the government show that the average price per pound of the cotton exported in February, 1921, was 17.5c per pound, against 27.5c in August, 1920, and 45.5c in June, 1920, another big item in the export trade, was exported in February, 1921, at $3.47 per barrel, against $12.23 in the preceding September; copper averaged in the February exports 13.7c per pound, against 20c in August, and 20.4c in February of 1920; corn exported in February, 1921, averaged 50c per bushel against 1.06 in June of the preceding year. With the fall in the price of raw cotton, that of cotton manufactures correspondingly declined, the average price of unbleached cotton cloth exported in February having been 11.9c per pound, against 27c in August, 1920, and bleached cottons 17.7c per pound, against 33.2c in the preceding September. Even in meats, in which the export prices have shown a less contrast with those of last year, the average price of beef in the corresponding months of the preceding year, canned beef exported averaged 16.3c per pound against 42.2c per pound in November, only four months earlier; bacon 20.5c per pound against 27.1c a year earlier; lard 13.2c against 26.5c per pound one year earlier, and refined sugar exported in February, 1921, showed a decline of 7c per pound against 14.6c in November, four months earlier.

It does not follow, however, adds the bank's statement, that all of the big reduction in the value of exports is due to the fall in export prices above noted, for a further examination of the figures of the export trade shows a tremendous decline of quantities of certain articles exported, especially in classes in which the exports of a year ago were running at exceptionally high figures. The number of automobiles exported in February, 1921, was, according to the official figures of the government, only 2,205 passenger cars against 19,377 in February of the preceding year, and of commercial cars only 625 against 2,163 in February, 1920. Cotton cloth also shows a marked fall off in quantity, the total number of yards exported in February, 1921, having been only 30,000,000 against 79,000,000 yards in February, 1920, and the value $1,437,000 in February, 1921, against $12,437,000 in February, 1920, a decline of 88 per cent. In the same month of last year, prices for many of our principal exports were at a high level. In February, 1921, the average price of cotton was 17.5c per pound, against 27.5c in August, 1920, and 45.5c in June, 1920. In the same month of last year, prices for many of our principal exports were at a high level. In February, 1921, the average price of cotton was 17.5c per pound, against 27.5c in August, 1920, and 45.5c in June, 1920.

In two classes of merchandise, exports of steel and petroleum, the prices in February, 1921, show little, if any, decline compared with the corresponding period of the preceding year. In steel, the average price in February, 1921, was 11.5c per pound, against 11.5c in February, 1920. In petroleum, the average price in February, 1921, was 11.5c per pound, against 11.5c in February, 1920. In the same month of last year, prices for many of our principal exports were at a high level. In February, 1921, the average price of cotton was 17.5c per pound, against 27.5c in August, 1920, and 45.5c in June, 1920.

The history and discovery of this tonic can be read on this page and should be read by all. To commemorate this event, there will be thrown from the aeroplane, one hundred CINOT cartons, each one attached to a tiny parachute and each one of these cartons with certificate enclosed is good for one bottle of CINOT at Dows Drug Store. ## Chicago Men Credited With Great Discovery

Taking Theory, That Nature Itself Provides a Cure for Every Ill, He Has Revolutionized Many Ideas in the Medical World.

WATCHED WILD ANIMALS

CHICAGO, Nov. 5.—For the past three months many remarkable and strange stories have been circulated in and about England concerning a theory worked out by a Chicago doctor. This physician took the stand that nature had a cure for every disease under the sun and it was every man's job to discover the secret; so this man undertook to pry the secret loose from Mother Nature, by watching animals, both domestic and wild, in their native haunts. It is a known and scientific fact that animals, unless they are hampered with too much civilization, are rarely sick or carried off by disease before their allotted span of years. It is also known that unless poisoned, the animals overcome sickness. The deer, bear, elk, wild cat, wolves, skunks, in fact all animals, domestic and wild, were closely observed as to diet, both in health and sickness. Then the meat eating animals were segregated and particularly noted and it was observed that they always hunted certain herbs and plants every so often. A sick dog was noted as eating large quantities of grass, and if grass was not obtainable it would eat leaves or other herbs. We have all noted our feline friend, the cat, how it will hunt catnip, eat it and even roll in it. The bears, both carnivorous and herbivorous, will eat willow buds when indisposed. The elk and deer were noted as hunting greenwoods, aspen and willows. Gophers and prairie dogs hunted buffalo grass roots. It was also noted that dandelion, yellow dock and sometimes golden seal were used by many animals besides many other herbs and plants.

The Indians were then consulted and all of their native remedies were looked into carefully and their views and studies of wild animals were added to this fund of knowledge. Nothing was overlooked in the way of nature's cures.

Then the experiments began. Many months were spent balancing this remedy and tests were made again and again with its relation towards man, who is both a meat-eating and vegetable-eating animal. Finally, 15 plants were picked out, and the herbs, blossoms, berries, roots and leaves were selected with great care, and under hydraulic pressure and the juices squeezed out and compounded into a remedy that was to become famous. No alcohol or mineral was added as the inventor wanted nothing to detract from nature.

It was given a name, and for one year tests were made, beginning in the far South, then the Middle West and then in New England. In Bridgeport it became a wonder medicine to hundreds of people who a year ago were sick, down and out and miserable from constipation, nervousness, kidney trouble, dyspepsia and indigestion and the dreaded rheumatism. Its effects were so marvelous that it came under the notice of Dr. E. L. Van Housen, prominent physician of Chicago, who says it's a remarkable combination. Prof. E. K. Fawcett, well known professor in chemistry and pharmacy, says: "The makers have upset every calculation and established something new in the way of a tonic."

A name had to be given, and that name was taken from TONIC, the word merely reversed and called CINOT, which is appropriate. The makers now have their troubles. They cannot supply the demand, and the manufacturers beg the many inquiring druggists to please be patient until they can enlarge their facilities.

Any inquiries from reputable druggists or physicians will be answered promptly by the CINOT representative at the office, 77 Lincoln building, Bridgeport, Conn.

THOUSANDS OF PEOPLE USING, NO SENSE IN BEING WEAK, RUN-DOWN, NERVOUS NOWADAYS

The Marvelous Power of CINOT to Turn Nerve Shattered, Rundown Men and Women Into Healthy, Robust, Energetic Human Beings Is Truly Astounding

PUTS A PERSON BACK TO WORK DAYS AND WEEKS SOONER

Take a little dose of CINOT before your meals and you will feel as a robust man or woman ought to feel. Vigorous and strong for the day's work or play. In just a few days you will feel the difference.

Don't go through the summer with the system weak and susceptible to colds and coughs but—tone it up and get your blood circulating through your body with a vigorous system and digestion behind every heartbeat. With the system working right you will wake up in the morning feeling fine and with added weight, appetite and ambition the day's work will be a pleasure.

Your food will do you more good because you are digesting all of it that is necessary, you will have energy and stamina. Conditions in the last few years have led up to the point where today, practically nine out of every ten people need some general system tonic like CINOT.

Twenty years ago, the pace at which life was lived started growing faster. It finally became a straining race in which men and women worked feverishly, ate hastily, slept little and took no exercise. In short, living conditions became absolutely harmful to health.

Diet Went Down During the period of the war, worry coupled with life at even a greater speed may have further hurt the health of many people and in addition to the average diet containing less of the necessary strengthening nutrition.

On top of all this came the "flu." It swept the nation from one end to the other and millions of thousands of people were stricken. Countless men and women got over it with some odd condition that bothered them before aggravated. It may have been the stomach, the liver, the kidneys, that were out of order before, but whatever it was, countless folks say they can notice the trouble to be worse since they had the "flu."

As a result of these things, hundreds of thousands of people are today in poor health and the demand for CINOT is the greatest in history. Sleepless nights are common. Complaints about the stomach, liver or kidneys are heard of. Headaches, belching, gas on the stomach after eating, lack of appetite, nervousness, catarrhal conditions of the head, nose and throat and bronchial tubes, a tired, worn-out feeling bother thousands.

The makers of CINOT realized what this country needed was a meritorious tonic that was strictly herbal and non-alcoholic. And CINOT was produced after long and tedious study by a Chicago physician and scientist, who was also a botanical expert.

Thousands Taking It CINOT begins its action by placing the stomach in good condition and bringing a normal, healthy action, builds up the appetite. It tones up the liver and kidney's quiet nerves, thus producing sound, restful sleep. It strengthens and cleans out the system and circulates the blood. In short, CINOT is just what the blood and run-down man and woman needs.

Thousands of bottles of CINOT have already been sold and it has become the scientific wonder of the profession in many cities of the United States.

And it now seems to be a question of a short time until this wonderful remedy is sold around the world.

"If the people of this section knew how easy it is to increase their strength, improve their digestion and whole system, they would certainly not wait until sick before availing themselves of medicine," declared the "CINOT" representative stationed at Dows Drug Store for the purpose of meeting people in need of such a medicine as the far-famed CINOT.

"Men buy shaving soaps and use a razor to improve their appearance, buy good clothes, bathe and use a tooth-brush for the same reason, and women use all these and more to accomplish the same end. And for reasons just as good and healthy they should keep their blood rich, their digestion good, their nerves steady, sleep sound and their stomach and other internal organs in side their body working nicely, and when they do this they never need fear being thin, pale, weak, nervous, rheumatic, decrepit or old looking."

Like Other Machinery The motion of CINOT is to accomplish this for you. Take a dose of this herbal tonic before meals for a few days and you will feel like a different person. It is scientific and will agree with the most delicate stomach. It has not one drop of alcohol in it to give one a false stimulation. It is endorsed by druggists everywhere, and we have testimonials of physicians who have highly recommended it—and glowing reports from thousands of people. Thousands of bottles are being sold right now. Many people who are run down from the results of the last year are getting wonderful results and forcing their systems against colds this winter.

Prominent New England Physician Says From Personal Observation and Investigation Is Willing to Endorse Cinot

The True Merit of Any Remedy Is the Actual Trial of It by a Dozen or More People and Results Noted and Watched. The Article Below Will Be Interesting to Many.

Dr. A. L. Fitch of No. 531 State Street, Bridgeport, Conn., and who is a prominent physician and has a large practice, and last of all is highly successful and respected, says: "I had several of my patients tell me at different times how much good CINOT did for their family and their friends, so I asked the CINOT people for their formula and they kindly gave it to me and I at once saw how they were getting their wonderful results. I then recommended it to quite a number of my patients who were suffering from sour, acid stomach, constipation, kidney trouble and rheumatism and also to those who needed a general tonic, and the results these patients received were truly wonderful and I heartily endorse CINOT."

The manufacturers of CINOT are aware that no reputable physician can or should endorse any remedy in which they do not know the contents and the physician is absolutely correct. For that reason, the CINOT Company will furnish its formula to any reputable physician and they can see for themselves why this remedy has taken the country by storm. It is honest, reliable and up-to-date and it only contains the pure juices of nature's herbs without the addition of alcohol or other poisonous ingredients. There are many people today who are run down and fagged out, feel more dead than alive, do not sleep well at night, have constipation, sick and nervous headaches, backache, and are nervous and irritable. It is to these people that CINOT cries out, and do not allow it to call in vain, for it will restore your health and quickly, too.

CINOT PRONOUNCED SIGH-NOT SPELL TONIC BACKWARDS

"CINOT is purely herbal and non-alcoholic and will not harm the most delicate stomach. It has no habit-forming drugs and can be taken by the young and old for constipation, which is one of the most stubborn diseases we have to handle, and as most laxative remedies make this malady worse instead of better, but in CINOT you will have to decrease the dose until permanent relief is accomplished. Most remedies you have to increase."

"I'm No Ladies' Man," Says Jack Dempsey;
"Put Me Down For a Fighting Guy!"

DEMPSEY IN NEW JERSEY—THE HEAVYWEIGHT CHAMPION IS PICTURED HERE AT FREDDY WELSH'S REST FARM AT SUMMIT, PROLOUNGING WITH WELSH'S TWO CHILDREN AND PLAYING THE PIANO. MORE STRENUOUS WORK COMES LATER.

Champion Talks About Women and Their Wives—Literature and Love, Art, and Atmosphere With The Sun Woman—Men Are Men and Women Are Dolls, He Says.

By MARIAN HALE
SUMMIT, N. J., April 25.—"Put me down as saying that men are men, a fight is a fight, but that women are dolls."

The speaker was Jack Dempsey, the heavyweight champion of the world, who has come to Jersey to train for his fight with Georges Carpentier, the European champion.

I was, especially privileged in being permitted to interview Dempsey for women are dolls at the champion's training quarters. He is stopping at Freddy Welsh's rest farm, where he plays golf and the piano and frolics with Welsh's two children while Jack Kearns is selecting his permanent training camp.

The leading question I had put to the champion was: "What do you think of women, Mr. Dempsey?" I thought it might bring up for discussion reports that he is engaged.

"I ain't married," he went on, "and I haven't got a girl, and when the big fight comes off, and the women take their places with the men on the other side of the ring, one won't make my heart beat faster than another."

"No, it ain't that I don't like ladies; it's that I know what I am doing. Women are the rule of you—a sweet ruin if you are in for the sweet business, and I have nothing against the guy who puts his head in the lion's mouth and dies while the little lady in the ruffles and the feathered hat laughs into her real lace handkerchief."

"It's that I am not in that business, that's all."

Jack's Philosophy

"I know that a fighter has just so many years to live, and he has to live those years among men, and after that—there was a long pause—"well after that perhaps I'll get married and go into business, but so long as this little old muscle dances to my command—stretching out his arm—I'll keep out of the class of Kipling's 'A Fool There Was'."

"Nevertheless I like to see women in the benches. I think they are a help to most atmospheres—if they are on the right side of the ropes," he added with another blush.

"You know athletic women are a bit worried," he continued, reaching for a glass of milk. "They are losing the lines that I used to know as feminine. I have to look twice at some of them to make sure they are not boys."

He Would Referee

He was asked what he thought of women as boxers.

"I've always wanted to be referee of one of those bouts," he acknowledged, and once more the crimson tide swept up to his hair.

"Say," he broke out, "do I look as if I eat them alive, miss?"

He stood with his hands resting at his sides, his brown eyes lowered, and he swayed ever so slightly on his feet as a child sways who has been treated too severely.

And I answered without an instant's hesitation, "No, Jack, you don't."

"It's this way," he said, sitting down again. "I like like a hen. I get up at 6, run five miles, come back and eat a rubdown."

"For lunch I have anything I like, a little roast beef, a few potatoes, a custard and a lot of tea. I'm a tea fan."

"Then I rest a while after lunch and then have a bout with the trainer or I go golfing or horseback riding or swimming."

"I got another rub down, have dinner, the heaviest meal, including soup and vegetables. Then to the billiard room for a game and finally to bed."

Data Not With Knife

He drank off the last of the glass of milk and put it down very slowly. "I don't eat with my knife; please put that in the paper. One report had me doing that, and it hurt me."

"Then I'd be obliged if you would say for me that fights are not what they used to be. Blood is blood. I drink a cup of it at every bout, hot blood from a newly killed lamb."

"But that's for the benefit of the blood-hungry public. I don't really care for the taste of it myself and I can't say that it makes me feel a bit stronger than my breakfast mush."

Possibly I seemed to be laughing behind my handkerchief and Jack laughed in his turn.

"Well, that cup of blood is a lie," he remarked, "but I thought you were looking for something like that."

All Dressed Up

Jack began to walk around the room and Jack looks well when walking. He had on a greenish-blue checkered pair of trousers and an open shirt when the interview began, but before it closed he had on a tie, a vest and a coat, and he looked very hard and he blushed very hard.

"Do you think," I gently inquired, "that the development of the body is likely to result in a corresponding lack of mind?"

"You mean, do I like the drama and literature? No, I don't," he said positively, probably recalling his efforts in the movies.

"I am just a fighting guy. Sometimes I wish I had gone beyond the grammar school, but there is no use whimpering now."

"Anyhow I would rather have my health and be a dumbhead than be a sickly ill-like chap, able to write a few sonnets and then to look for a quick end in some kind of feeble death."

"But Carpentier accomplished both," I said.

"I've My Points, Too"

"Carpentier is a gentleman and a greyhound," said Dempsey. "I am neither. I am slower on my feet than he is and slower in my mind perhaps, but I've got my points, too. I've never tried to be anything but myself. I have never faked and that will get you through. If God intended you to get through."

I rose to go.

"Isn't there just one little woman somewhere, Mr. Dempsey?" I pleaded.

"Yes," he said, raising his head. "There is mother. Change what I said. Put me down as saying that a man's a man, a fight is a fight, and that some women are mothers."

date in the evening addressed all the members of the joint conference committee together with delegates from each division of the Amalgamated Association in Massachusetts at the hall of the Boston Carmen's union on matters of pending legislation as well as upon the situation confronting us with the trustees, at which time a full report of the situation was made.

"5th. On April 8, 1921, a conference was had between the sub-committee of the joint conference committee, Vice President O'Brien and Peter J. Rooney and the trustees. On April 11, 1921, a further conference was had with the trustees, at which time they proposed a new agreement.

"6th. It was determined that four meetings should be held at Brockton, Lynn, Lawrence and Fall River, respectively, to give an opportunity for all the divisions to be present, to hear the proposal of the trustees, and an explanation of the differences between the existing agreement and the one which the trustees proposed for one year from May 2, 1921. Every member of each division was invited and had a right to attend any or all of these meetings. After reading with care the entire agreement proposed by the trustees and making the fullest explanation possible, each meeting unanimously rejected the trustee's proposal.

"7th. At the meeting in the hall of the Boston Carmen's union on April 7, all the divisions of the state unanimously passed resolutions in favor of arbitration.

"8th. On April 15, 1921, your sub-committee with Vice-President P. J. O'Brien and Peter J. Rooney and our counsel, James H. Vane, had a conference with the trustees, at which time the decision of the four meetings held upon the 11th, 12th, 13th and 14th of April at Brockton, Lynn, Lawrence and Fall River, respectively, was reported to the trustees, and a discussion of the proposed contract took place. The result was that the trustees made these two alternative proposals:

"(A.) The trustees have submitted a form of agreement for the next year, which they are willing to make with the union.

"(B.) If the agreement already submitted is unsatisfactory to their employees, the trustees will operate the road without any union agreement, but will submit the question of wages to arbitration. They will meet and deal with committees of their employees from time to time as occasion requires.

"It seems strange that these trustees should find it necessary to suggest 49 different changes in their proposed agreement for next year abolishing many things which you have fought for during the last 18 years, which have come about as the result of negotiation, conference, compromise, agreement and arbitration. On Feb. 25 the trustees said they wanted to arbitrate the present contract which they say expires on May 2—with which assertion we disagree. Then they said on April 11, after there had been considerable newspaper discussion about arbitration, that they would arbitrate only questions affecting the meaning and intent of their proposal—which means the old system of favoritism and partnership can be invoked against individuals and the whole theory of protection of men in their jobs is utterly and utterly destroyed. This is absolutely 'fake' arbitration. It is the shell of the name and not the substance. In this proposal the trustees had the assurance to suggest that the men will get the benefit of group life insurance. We are informed by an expert on group life insurance that the cost to the company for this would be $6 to $8 a year per man. If they reduced the men's wages 20 per cent., the reduction in wage would average over $300 a man per year, so you can see the generosity of the trustees which is manifested in this proposal. Their generosity, in other words, netted them $290 at the expense of each man. Finally on April 15, they said they would arbitrate the wage question, but, if they did, would not enter into any agreement with the union; in other words, having been driven from their arbitrary position on April 11 when they submitted the agreement (a copy of which you have), they resort to a combination of both. They say, take what we give you with a 'fake' arbitration which we offer, or if you don't take that you cannot have any union agreement if you insist upon arbitrating wages."

"You and we stand for the principle of collective bargaining so that we and our families may have some security of employment without being driven into the slavery of individual bargaining in which we would be at the mercy of our employers, for some reasonable guaranty that we and our families will not be in want for protection in our work against the oppression and tyranny of those who can by favoritism and otherwise deprive us of our just rights."

"We stand for the great principle of seniority and the even greater principle of arbitration."

"We do not want the board of trustees as our court of last resort. We know what to expect from them."

"We have fought, all these years, through our organization, and secured our present wages, hours and conditions which could never have been accomplished in any other way. We do not want to lose what we have attained."

"This is the crisis of our industrial lives. Its proper settlement means everything to us. Most of us have given the best part of our lives to this work."

"We have tried in every way to be fair, just and decent."

"What have the trustees done? Even while our negotiations were going on, they have been parading through the streets of the principal cities of this system to car barns and elsewhere truck loads of coal beds for strikers' breakers from other states in preparation for a strike which they are trying to force upon us. They boldly admit it."

"While we are preparing ballots for calling meetings to enable you to vote upon their proposals, the most cowardly thing of the whole business is the manifest attempt of these trustees to intimidate, coerce, drive and threaten us into submission to their will even before we have a chance to vote."

"They have arrogantly announced what you can do, either that or lose your job."

"Such conduct is to be condemned in any set of employers, but it is so reprehensible as to be almost inconceivable in public officials. These trustees are supposed to represent the public of which we are just as much a part as they or any other citizen of Massachusetts."

"Our case is based upon the solid foundation of righteousness, truth, justice and fairness and upon that basis we confidently appeal to the fair-minded people of Massachusetts. Such an appeal has never been made in vain. We cannot believe that the people of this state are going to tolerate any such autocratic, arbitrary and high-handed dealing with a great body of employees in a public service industry. We are citizens of this great Commonwealth. These public officials were appointed by the governor of Massachusetts. He can remove them."

"Policy of Terrorism"

In a statement by International Vice President O'Brien of the Amalgamated union, further light is shed on the matter. Referring to the two proposals made by the company to the men, he gives the following figures: "A little over three per cent. of the men who voted were in favor of accepting one or the other of the company's proposals. Nearly ninety-seven per cent were in favor of rejecting them." Continuing, the statement reads, "Notwithstanding the great amount of unemployment, by reason of which many people are suffering, these men almost unanimously voted to suspend work if the public trustees failed in their duty to arbitrate. When I say arbitrate, I mean real arbitration. These very intelligent employees were able for themselves to distinguish between real arbitration and fake arbitration." Vice President O'Brien charges the trustees with adopting "a policy of terrorism." He explains this accusation by stating that "they have paraded truckloads of coal through the public streets, have arranged to have them delivered at about the time when all the employees could see them. They have even sent strike-breakers into power plants and asked our men to instruct them so as to enable them to take our men's places." The trustees are also charged with "misleading the public" and with "spending, from all the information that we get, many thousands of dollars of public money, making contracts with strike-breaking agencies, restaurants, caterers and other people and according to pay much greater wages than our men are now receiving in order to break up our union."

THE OFFENDED DAUGHTERS

Vice-President Calvin Coolidge appears to have created a situation that may furnish an opportunity for him to add to his fame as a promoter of "law and order." In a recent speech before the assembled members of the Daughters of the Revolution he referred to their organization as the "Daughters of the American Revolution." Thereby he started into renewed life a feud that has been smoldering for a number of years.

The Daughters of the Revolution, it should be understood, claim to be the only, original, non-sectarian, non-political, "Daughters" of the embattled patriots who made their stand at Concord bridge and Lexington; who fought and bled at Bunker Hill and Yorktown, and followed Washington across the Delaware and shared in the starvation and cold of Valley Forge.

WAR TALK IS FOOLISH

It would be foolish to stir up any ill-feeling with Japan over this Yaff affair. We are confident that it can be settled by diplomatic means without resorting to any pyrotechnic methods. It is bad policy to talk of the possibility of war with other powers whenever there happens to be a difference between our government and theirs on matters that are purely diplomatic.

HOUSING PROBLEMS

The housing problem is becoming more and more acute. Many owners of tenement property built years ago, are trying to dispose of it while the high prices prevail; and in this they generally have little trouble, for the reason that tenants are liable to be turned out by the transfer of the property, without any consideration as to the difficulty of finding other quarters.

IRISH RELIEF WORK

While parties may differ as to the policies adopted by the Irish people in their struggle for independence, there can be but one opinion in regard to the necessity of relieving the existing distress. The movement now in progress in this country and for which a drive has been launched in this city, to quote the committee, is non-sectarian and non-political, and the funds will be disbursed under the direction of committees that consider only the need of the victims.

SEEN AND HEARD

Can't believe summer has come until we see a girl in fur.
In spring a young man's fancy lightly turns to ask Young Man Gompers.
A tragedy of spring—the passing out of the well known buckwheat cake.
When in doubt, address the Detroit Free Press, make the bootlegger take the first drink of it.

MEXICO DEPORTS AMERICAN

President Obregon of Mexico has taken steps to banish the Reds from Mexico and strange to say, the first he has ordered deported is an American named Gale, who has been organizing Bolshevistic bands for the past few years wherever he could find an opening in Mexico. Gale has been known as the Laine of Mexico and has published a magazine known as the International Magazine. He has been an influence in support of the Third International in Mexico. Judging from the ramifications of this communist organization, President Obregon has not started a day too soon to fight this revolutionary movement.

RAISING THE BARS

Congress will promptly pass the immigration bill, which has been in controversy for some time past. It was passed by the last congress only to be vetoed by President Wilson. Its enactment now is assured. Its operation is limited to fourteen months and the number of each nationality held admissible is 3 per cent of the number of such nationality already in the United States. That seems to be a good arrangement. It is necessary to protect this country against the influx of undesirable elements from Europe. Moreover, there are from three to four million people idle here at present; and immigrants coming here under present conditions, would be likely either to become a public charge or to squeeze somebody who is already here out of a job.

MAN ABOUT TOWN

What is the public interested in most keenly? Science or art, or nature? The answer, seemingly, is that Friend Public doesn't care a damn for any of the three. Of 63 volumes recently acquired at the Lowell public library, 61 were fiction. Non-fiction, in other words the entire range of human knowledge, was magnificently represented by seven books. Of these, a single tome related to literature. This was a work concerning Jane Austen. The remaining 62 included a work about an English wife in Berlin, the irrigation of something or other, etc. The elegant title of one of the story-books was somewhat as follows: "Meet 'Em With Shorty McCabe." Old Irish Juggler was Johnnie-on-the-spot, still babbling about his precious Allan Quartermain. But there was Floy Dell's latest volume, "Moon-Calf," and if this production merits the praise which has been lavished upon it, it is enough to lead one to any book-list. Dell's charming contributions to current literature, especially via the column of "The Liberator," would indicate great things.

HASN'T FELT SO WELL IN YEARS

Fitchburg Woman Says She's Hopeful and Happy Since Taking Tanlac

Many people in this section, moved by gratitude as well as a desire to help others, have come forward to testify to the remarkable benefits they have received by taking Tanlac. Among the latest is Mrs. Daniel Eblor, Marshall road, Fitchburg, who said:
"I have not enjoyed good health since I had the flu two years ago. I left my stomach in a bad condition, and I did not seem to be able to digest even the lightest of foods. As time passed on I grew weaker and thinner every day, and I just dreaded what the future might hold for me if I couldn't get my health back. The least little work would tire me out, in fact I felt tired all the time. I went to bed tired and I got up tired. I always had backache and just dragged out a miserable existence."
"What I needed was something to build me up, but the medicines I tried failed to do this. With Tanlac, however, it has been different. It proved to be just what I had been needing all the time as I have taken less than two bottles and am already feeling like a different person. I have been benefited in every way and instead of being discouraged as I used to be, I am hopeful and happy, as I know my health and strength are coming back to me. Tanlac does just what they say it will."

CHAMBER MUSIC IN ALL SOULS' CHURCH

Applause that has rarely been heard in Lowell churches broke forth spontaneously at the completion of Tchaikowsky's Andante Cantabile played by the Hoffman string quartet of Boston as part of a concert of chamber music in All Souls' church yesterday afternoon. The quartet is made up of Jacques and Ernest Hoffman, violinists; Louis Archers, viola and Carl Barthe, cello. Miss Edith Billard, soprano soloist, also had a part in the program.
The concert was made possible by the proceeds of a fund left to the Unitarian church by the late Mary E. Folsom. A large audience was present. Exceptional skill and sense of tone quality and musical interpretation marked the playing of Mozart's quartet in E flat major, and the same was equally true of performance of Mendelssohn's Canzonetta, with its light and tripping charm, and Smetana's quartet in E minor bearing the title "From My Life."
Miss Billard gave rare pleasure by her rendering of Gounod's "Ave," "Jerusalem," and Massenet's "Le Cid" and "Pleures Mes Yeux," sung in French.

Next Saturday IS ARBOR DAY

Next Saturday is Arbor Day. Every one should get into the spirit of the day and plant some trees or shrubs to beautify their home grounds. There is nothing that can be done with such a small outlay of money that will so increase real estate values and add to the attractiveness of the community. Before any planting is done there should be a definite plan of what is to be the ultimate result even though it cannot be accomplished in one season. Not only flowers but foliage, fruit and twigs should be considered in this plan. Utmost simplicity always obtains the best effects.

GIBBS AND YOUNG AVILA ARE REMATCHED.

Local boxing fans will undoubtedly delight in the announcement that Johnny Young Avila and Woonsocket Joe Gibbs, the pair who recently engaged in a thrilling ten round bout here, have been re-matched by the Crescent A.

The second local meeting between these strenuous battlers is set for next Thursday night at the Crescent rink and it will be anything but a dull affair. The first clash another rare treat is in store for devotees of the glove sport. Many fans, in fact, about everyone who saw the first engagement, pronounced it one of the greatest fights ever staged in this city. It was a real test of strength with everything that the word implies. The pair stood in there and fought and slugged at bewildering speed over the entire four rounds. More hard hitting and aggressive battling was seen in one round of this fight than is usually witnessed in a half dozen rounds of other encounters. Gibbs was awarded the decision but many believe that Avila can best him if he follows up his leads and shows a little more aggressiveness. This he plans to do, hence it looks like a bout worthy of a packed house.

New clubs are bubbling up in Boston almost over night. Under the boxers, the clubs in the big cities are about the only ones that can make money. Not all of the big town promoters, however, clean up, and very few of the small town organizations are able to show a balance on the right side of the ledger. The big reason for the inability of the small clubs to survive and prosper is the fact that the boxers get most of the money. Another factor is that owing to the exorbitant charge for a license young men are not entering the game. Twenty-five dollars, which is the tax assessed main bouters as well as preliminary performers, is a big barrier, and hence few are becoming registered. This forces the promoters to use semi-final performers and these men now demand more than any main bout boxers received not very many years ago.

The boxing commission would make a very popular move if it reduced the registration fees for the beginners, and also regulated the demands of the other boxers in this way the game would prosper and new talent would be developed.

This afternoon the commission is to give a hearing on the recent Montreal-Hermann bout in Boston.

MISS STERLING MEETS MISS JACKSON

LONDON, April 25.—Miss Alexia Sterling, champion American woman golfer, opposed Miss Janet Jackson, holder of the women's Irish title, Miss Sterling, who is a member of the Royal and other widely known British women players at the West Hill golf course, Brookwood, today. The entrance fees will be used to defray the expenses of the hospital in memory of the late Dr. Elsie Inglis, who commanded the Scottish Red Cross commission in Serbia, and was a prominent golfer. The contest was for 18 holes, medal play, and there were 128 entrants. The competitors played from the women's tee, this making the course longer than is usual for ladies' tournaments. The chances suited the long straight drives among the contestants. At the conclusion of the contest prizes will be given for the best scratch score, for the best handicap score, for the best net return and the best last nine holes. Rain fell during the morning, but conditions at noon were good.

LITTLE VISITS WITH FEATHERED FRIENDS

By MARY SEAMAN

I always welcome the rose-breasted grosbeak. In some localities he is called "potato-bug eater," and he is a very welcome sight. Although the name is not high-sounding, any bird should be welcome in one's garden if he eats those loathsome beetles.

I looked over my small potato patch early one summer evening, and noted many potato bugs that deserved death. The two-sticks-and-squash method is sure, but messy, and I abhor it, so I decided to send the bugs on by the poison route next morning.

I arose with the birds—or thought I was doing so—to get in my daily work. But as I went into the garden I frightened up Mr. Grosbeak and his sober-looking, quaker-attired mate. Investigation revealed no potato bugs, although I looked underneath as well as on top of the leaves. My feathered friends had beaten me to the slaughter, and I know that I could now trust them to take care of the potato patch as long as they resided in the neighborhood. They picked a home right in an apple tree, and allowed no saucy potato bug to fatten in my garden.

On a potato bug diet this beautiful creature is a songster of wonderful sweetness—a rolling warble, like yet unlike the robin's carol. The rose-beast's song is richer, fuller and more melodiously sweet, and if you hear him before you see him, you probably will look for a robin, then for a thrush and finally for an oriole before you locate all this melody issuing from the throat of a "potato bug eater."

RIGA, April 25.—Restrictions placed upon the trade carried on in theatre buffets, tea houses, milk stores, butcher shops, groceries, fruit stores and certain types of community food shops in Russia have been lifted by the soviet government, it is said, in newspaper advices from Moscow. Trading may in future be carried on freely, it is said.

SERMON TOPIC IS

"ALONE WITH GOD"

"Alone With God" was the subject of the sermon preached by Rev. William A. Bartlett in the First Congregational church yesterday morning. A hymn of the same name was sung by Andrew McCarthy to accompany the sermon. In the evening the preacher spoke on the topic, "A Man Who Thought Too Much."

"God does not do his work through kings and great people," the speaker said. "Those who are faithful and serve us every day are the ones who should have the regard of the people. A great deal of the unhappiness of the world comes through false anticipation and by raising visions of what we think we ought to be, of words that ought to be spoken, and of deeds we think should be done. I can remember a man of this city, who felt that he had been overlooked for the office of superintendent of the Sunday school and 59 years later when he told me of this slight, there were tears in his eyes. Think of carrying a grievance like that for 59 years! When we stop to think of our own grievances, then our hearts are embittered. We cannot look forward towards getting our rewards and recognition in life through the people round about us. Put not your absolute trust in anyone. I do not mean by that we should distrust our fellow people, but they are not God.

RUCHES BACK
Wraps are topped quite often with ruches very similar to those you wore some years ago—only very much more fluffy. And in some instances the ruches leave the wraps and become a garment in themselves.

LOWELL TO ASSIST CHINA FAMINE FUND

The Lowell Federation of Churches, through its secretary, Rev. J. E. Kennedy, has sent to the clergymen of the city a letter stating the action of the federation in endorsing the China famine fund and asking that the matter be presented to the churches.

John C. Prince, field secretary of the New England committee, was in the city yesterday in arranging the details for the appeal. The China Hunger cards, so common in greater Boston, will be placed on sale the first of next week by some of the churches and in some of the prominent business places of the city by the Women's auxiliary of the Y.M.C.A. under the direction of the general secretary, H. F. Howe. The Union National bank will act as local treasurer.

LEG FRACTURED
Cyrus Merrill, of 22 Carlyle street, is at the Lowell Corporation hospital suffering from a fracture of the leg as a result of a motorcycle accident, which occurred last evening in Gorham street near the corner of Lundberg street, when in an endeavor to avoid a collision with an automobile, he drove his cycle into a fence.

LOSS OF APPETITE

Pimples, Boils, Eruptions, etc.—Mental and Physical Weakness. Are all very prevalent just now, and are positive proof that the blood is wanting in the power to defend the body against contagious and infectious diseases. They show conclusively that the blood needs thorough cleansing, enriching and vitalizing. Do not put off giving attention to these dangerous symptoms. Get Hood's Sarsaparilla today and begin taking it at once. Remember, this medicine has given satisfaction to three generations, as a treatment for the blood, stomach, liver and kidneys, and for catarrh, rheumatism and other common diseases. It builds up the system, makes food taste good, and helps you to eat and sleep well. For a gentle laxative or an active cathartic, take Hood's Pills. You will like them.

NOT A HITCH AS NEW TIME ARRIVES

Father Time, after his hop, skip and jump from standard time to daylight saving yesterday morning, started to jog along today in much his accustomed way. There were a few late arrivals in stores, offices and factories of persons who had not become acclimated to the new time conditions.

At the Middlesex street station there was little of the confusion that marked the similar transition that took place last spring. Excited individuals did not rush about, buttonholing officials to find out what was the matter with clocks and watches and railroad time tables. The clock on the tower of the railroad station was one of those that did not get set ahead an hour Sunday morning. From now until the last Monday in next September it will continue to register time an hour behind that of the other clocks of the city.

Although there have been changes in the time tables the important trains arrive and leave practically on the same time as in the past. The whole system of train operation has simply been shifted over onto a daylight saving basis with the schedules on the time cards one hour earlier than Massachusetts time. The federal law compels the roads to operate on standard time.

Massachusetts appears to be the only state in the country in which daylight saving has been adopted as a result of legislative enactment. Most of the important industrial cities and towns of the northeastern section of the country, including New York city, have adopted the daylight saving as a result of local ordinances or general agreement, or else they are planning to do so in the near future.

THE FINEST HABITS AND CHARACTERISTICS

Humphrey O'Sullivan of this city has been requested by Humphrey H. Desmond of the Commerce Magazine, issued by the department of commerce at the University of Wisconsin, to tell that magazine what he considers the four finest habits a young man can cultivate and the four most worthwhile characteristics a young man ought to possess. Mr. O'Sullivan's reply was as follows:

"My Dear Mr. Desmond: In prompt reply to your favor of April 21, I am pleased to say the finest habits a young man can cultivate in his estimation are: Promptness, truthfulness, honesty and industry, and the four most worthwhile characteristics a young man ought to possess are: Neatness, civility, alertness and ambition. I am handing you these two answers after 21 years of being one of the most active kind of retail experience, and 12 years as a national advertiser, and I would insist that any young man who wants to make success his goal that he make up his mind to qualify 100 per cent. upon every heading I have specified. Very truly yours, HUMPHREY O'SULLIVAN."

Tyrol Favors Fusion With Germany

PARIS, April 25.—Ninety per cent of the votes cast in the province of Tyrol, Austria, yesterday, in the plebiscite to express the sentiment of the people relative to fusion with Germany, were favorable to such a union, according to information reaching Paris today.

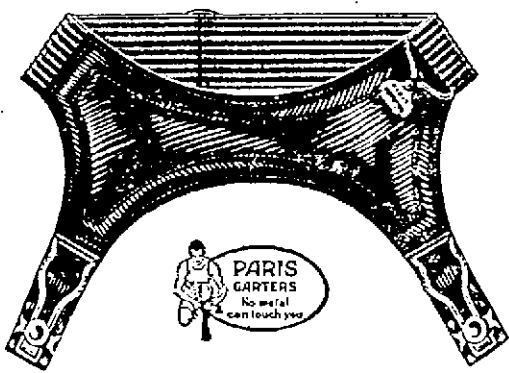

The plebiscite was only the registry of public opinion. Allied representatives in Vienna made representations to the government of the Austrian republic relative to the plebiscite, and Austria issued orders forbidding the voting, but this order was ignored.

means prettier teeth—accept it

This is an offer which millions have accepted. And glistening teeth seen everywhere show the good effects.

Make this free test. Then judge the benefits by what you see and feel.

To fight film

Dental science, after diligent research, has found ways to fight film on teeth. Careful tests have proved them beyond question. Now leading dentists everywhere advise their daily use.

The methods are embodied in a scientific tooth paste—Pepsodent. So all may regularly apply them. To countless homes they have brought already a new era in teeth cleaning.

How film ruins

Film is that viscous coat you feel. It clings to teeth, enters crevices and stays. The ordinary dentifrice does not effectively combat it. So, despite the tooth brush, it has caused tremendous damage.

Film absorbs stains, making the teeth look dingy. It forms the basis of tartar. It holds food substance which ferments and forms acid. It holds the acid in contact with the teeth to cause decay.

It breeds millions of germs and they, with tartar, are the chief cause of pyorrhea.

Pepsodent combats these film-caused troubles as nothing else has done.

Combats acid

Pepsodent also multiplies the salivary flow. It multiplies the starch digestant in the saliva, to digest starch deposits that cling. It multiplies the alkalinity of the saliva, to neutralize the acids which cause decay.

In these ways it acts as fruit acids do. With every use it multiplies Nature's teeth-protecting forces. Old methods had the opposite effect.

Watch it act

Send for a 10-Day Tube. Note how clean the teeth feel after using. Mark the absence of the viscous film. See how teeth whiten as the film-coats disappear.

A book we send tells the reason for each good effect. Judge what those results will mean to you and yours. Cut out the coupon now.

MRS. KARL MUCK DIES OF CANCER IN BERLIN

BOSTON, April 23.—Mrs. Anita Muck, wife of Dr. Karl Muck, former conductor of the Boston Symphony orchestra, is dead.

According to word that has come over the cables Mrs. Muck died of cancer on the 14th of April. She had suffered long and greatly and her last days were far from happy ones. The story of Mrs. Muck's life reads almost like a great tragedy. Born of excellent parents, highly educated, of a sweet and lovable disposition and exceedingly attractive, she met and captivated Dr. Muck at a time when women were studiously avoiding him and when music was his sole passion.

She moved the great music master as no woman to that time had done and became his wife. Honors were hers. Happiness was hers. She worshipped her husband on whom the entire musical world showered its praises.

Her husband rapidly made his way to the peak of the German music world, and Mrs. Muck soon became one of the most charming women in court and musical circles in Berlin. Dinnor Wilhelm was her husband's best friend. Richard Strauss and Felix Weingartner were among his colleagues. Amid all the honor and pomp and glory Mrs. Muck moved with the gracious dignity of a queen, radiating charm and making lasting friendships.

Then came the call to America—to Boston. Her husband instantly won the hearts of musical America and under his leadership the Boston Symphony forged to the front of American musical organizations. Dr. Muck was feted and praised, and as usual, Mrs. Muck charmed those who so admired her husband.

Suddenly the world war was in full swing. Germany being condemned on all sides. Still her husband conducted the Symphony and all seemed well. Then America entered the fray and soon Dr. Muck, her idol, tottered and fell. Soon her vision of her husband's love for her became dimmed with tears as she was brought to realize that he had been unfaithful not only to America and those who had placed him at the peak of success—but unfaithful to her.

The stories of his loving-kindness to young Boston women, his unwillingness to ever allow love to women other than his wife, became public property, and he stood bare to the world.

Mrs. Muck returned to Germany feeling deeply and bitterly the odium visited upon her husband during his last months here. She had seen her husband lose his great honor in America. She had seen her country defeated and crushed. Her husband's unfaithfulness to her had been disclosed, and her great romance had been shattered.

Yet the quiet, charming, little woman remained loyal to her husband through it all. To her he was still the husband—even though not the lover. But the shock, the utter disappointment, the overthrow of her ideal home heavily on her. She fell ill of cancer, and her final days were days of unhappiness and suffering.

True, her husband was feted since his return to Europe, and has filled many "guest" engagements. But the sting of the American disclosures was in her heart, and the great cancer was eating her life away, and the joy and honor of the last were not hers.

REFUSE TO LEAVE HUT

84-Year-Old Man and Son and Daughter Defy Order
—Still Claim Property

NEW YORK, April 23.—A steam shovel, used in excavating the site of a proposed modern apartment building, today was driving its nose toward a dilapidated one-room shack on Washington Heights where in reside 81-year-old Martin M. Molenaar, his son and daughter, claimants of $500,000 worth of the vast and thickly settled acreage to be seen from their doorstep. These hundreds of acres, stretching in all directions as far as the naked eye may see, were included in the estate of William Molenaar, who died in 1812, leaving a quaintly worded will which bequeathed the land to three sons and a daughter.

Claiming that disposition of these lands by his grandfather's heirs was contrary to the provisions of the will, the present occupants of the hut and his children have been there eight years, hoping against hope that they could prove their title rights. Several years ago a supreme court decision blasted the hopes of the trio, but still they remained.

Ordered by a contractor to move, they refused, and now, like the ticking of a clock, each plunging of the steam shovel's nose brings nearer the closing hour of the Molenaar's regime.

Women Vote in Belgium for First Time

BRUSSELS, April 23.—Returns trickled in slowly today from the municipal and commercial elections held yesterday in Belgium, the results thus far known showing that neither the clericals nor the socialists achieved the successes they expected. The clericals lost much ground in their former strongholds in Flanders, while the socialists, for whom predictions of a large majority in Antwerp had been made, polled only about one-third of the votes east there. On all sides much splitting of tickets was reported. The vote of the women cast for the first time in the history of Belgium caused no upsets of expectations, so far as could be determined.

Berlin Yields

Germany at the London conference, which the allies summarily rejected. Note Not Made Public

The German government is refraining from making public today its note to the United States on reparations, in order to give President Harding, it is explained, an opportunity to consider and make inquiries concerning it, if he desires, before forwarding it to the allies.

Allies Defer Decision

LONDON, April 23.—Decision as to what action the allies will take in enforcing their reparation demands upon Germany has been deferred until next Saturday. On that day, the supreme allied council will meet either in Paris or London, and it may be the United States by that time will have formally communicated to the council the contents of Germany's latest proposals. If such formal action has taken place, the acceptance or rejection of the German terms will be decided upon, and allied procedure for the future will be determined.

Germany's "Final Word"

Germany's note to President Harding, believed to be the "final word" of the Foreign Ministry, was handed to E. L. Drosch, American commissioner in Berlin, last night. It is probable it will be decoded and laid before President Harding early today.

There was an impression here that the German proposals might not be formally communicated to the allied capitals until after at least an outline had been informally sent to members of the supreme council, and some in-ident Harding and Secretary of State Hughes early today.

Unofficially, German proposals are said to have been offered a "liberal compromise" as formulated at Paris last January, and the German counter proposals laid before the entente leaders in this city early in March. The German government was to submit the text of its note to the foreign relations committee of the legislative body, and then go before the legislative body to explain its position, and perhaps demand a vote of confidence.

The degree of success that attends the latest effort of Berlin to reach a settlement with the entente, may determine the future of the Weimar regime.

Beyond reaching a decision to submit the whole reparations question to the supreme council next Saturday, yesterday's conference between Prime Minister Lloyd George and Premier

Brundage appears to have been an informal exchange of views. The plans of France for the further occupation of the Ruhr Basin and the Westphalian Industrial district of Germany were fully discussed, and it seems Great Britain will be at least nominally represented in the forces which take over these regions if such a step should be decided upon by the supreme council.

Paris Papers Pleased

PARIS, April 23.—Entire satisfaction with the result of yesterday's conference at London, England, between Premier Brundage and Prime Minister Lloyd George, was expressed by news papers here today. The Echo de Paris declared that the energy of M. Brundage had convinced Mr. Lloyd George of the justice of the French point of view. The newspaper adds that the two premiers were agreed on the necessity of the United States rejoining her place in the supreme allied council.

There's no bluff to this! Our word is our bond. We live up to everything we claim—and we lead, not trail others.

"Liberal Compromise"

Unofficially, German proposals are said to have been offered a "liberal compromise" as formulated at Paris last January, and the German counter proposals laid before the entente leaders in this city early in March. The German government was to submit the text of its note to the foreign relations committee of the legislative body, and then go before the legislative body to explain its position, and perhaps demand a vote of confidence.

The degree of success that attends the latest effort of Berlin to reach a settlement with the entente, may determine the future of the Weimar regime.

Beyond reaching a decision to submit the whole reparations question to the supreme council next Saturday, yesterday's conference between Prime Minister Lloyd George and Premier

Brundage appears to have been an informal exchange of views. The plans of France for the further occupation of the Ruhr Basin and the Westphalian Industrial district of Germany were fully discussed, and it seems Great Britain will be at least nominally represented in the forces which take over these regions if such a step should be decided upon by the supreme council.

Paris Papers Pleased

PARIS, April 23.—Entire satisfaction with the result of yesterday's conference at London, England, between Premier Brundage and Prime Minister Lloyd George, was expressed by news papers here today. The Echo de Paris declared that the energy of M. Brundage had convinced Mr. Lloyd George of the justice of the French point of view. The newspaper adds that the two premiers were agreed on the necessity of the United States rejoining her place in the supreme allied council.

A spreading rail was believed to have caused the wreck, which dished six cars containing 15 passengers.

VETERAN FISHERMEN APPROVE MAYFLOWER

BOSTON, April 25.—The schooner Mayflower, handicapped by the weight of rain-soaked rigging and sails, by the heavy seas outside and by a deck load of passengers, made a 35-mile trial trip out of this port yesterday. When she returned to her berth, veteran fishermen who sailed aboard her as guests said that the schooner, which will meet the Canadian challenge tug race in Fishermen's races off Halifax next fall met their full approval.

W. W. Hardin, and Rear Admiral Benson, president and chairman, respectively, of the American Representative Society of Michigan, also were mentioned in the gossip in connection with the appointments.

Under the law there must be two representatives each from the Atlantic and Pacific coasts, one from the Gulf coast, one from the Great Lakes and one from the interior. Mr. Thompson was appointed by President Wilson as the Gulf coast representative and he subsequently was chosen by the old board as its vice chairman.

President Harding is said to be undecided as to the third democrat to be named, Chairman Benson and Joshua Alexander, secretary of commerce under President Wilson, being under consideration.

Among others prominently mentioned are T. V. O'Connor of Buffalo, N. Y., head of the International Longshoremen's union and James H. Talbert of Missouri.

Mr. Gompers condemned efforts of lower costs by cutting wages and which he describes as an organized movement now being promulgated by chambers of commerce throughout the country and by the National Association of Manufacturers.

HOW MANY ANIMALS HAVE WE BROUGHT BACK? ASKED MR. FLIPPETY-FLAP.

Nancy and Nick and Flippety-Flap sat on top of an empty hand-wagon and talked things over. "Let's see," the fairman was saying. "How many animals have we brought back to the circus?"

Nick counted up on his fingers. "The elephant, Mrs. Kangaroo and Kinky Kang, her son, the lion family, Mr. and Mrs. Seal, Gyp the Giraffe, the Monkey family and old Grumpy Hippo and her neighbor, that's all the animals I've got. Nancy, you'll have to help count next time."

"Fine," exclaimed Flippety-Flap. "The elephant part of it is they are all happy and glad they came, but still, they wouldn't leave now if all the groves in fairyland let them out and handed them their railroad tickets home on a gold plate, but I see all I saw a man put a big stock of pink tickets into a drawer this morning. That means that we are to have a real circus this year."
